

Tornadoes Hammer Indiana And Texas; 1 Death Recorded

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four tornado-battered Indiana counties tried to sort out the debris today following a rash of twisters which left one person dead and at least 24 injured.

The National Weather Service said at least three tornadoes, spawned by thunderstorms moving ahead of a cold front, churned through Jackson, Bartholomew, Decatur and Jefferson Counties Sunday evening. Seymour, in Jackson County, was the hardest hit, with damage estimated at $1 million by county Civil Defense director Lyman Goblen.

A twister slammed into the Sky Haven trailer park on Seymour's west side shortly after 5 p.m., destroying five mobile homes and damaging five others, authorities said. Lavina Arnold, 52, a resident of the trailer park, suffered head and chest injuries. She was taken to Jackson County Hospital and later moved to Louisville, Ky., General Hospital, where she died on an operating table, a spokesman said.

A tornado also struck near Westport, Ind., causing extensive property damage. And twisters touched down near Columbus, Ind., resulting in considerable damage but no injuries. Another tornado was reported in Jefferson County, Ind., but there have been no reports of damage or injuries. Severe weather was not limited to Indiana. Tornadoes, large hail and damaging winds struck portions of Texas during the afternoon and evening. Several tornadoes were reported along the Texas Gulf coast. Several twisters struck southern Texas near Bay City and McAllen. Some damage was reported near Bay City, but no injuries were reported. Earlier in the afternoon, a tornado struck near Alvin. In central Texas, a tornado struck near Gatesville, with no damage or injuries reported.

A line of heavy thunderstorms lasted into this morning along the Texas Gulf coast and panhandle. Other showers and thunderstorms were located through the mid-Mississippi valley, the Ohio valley and the Carolinas.

Showers were scattered across the upper Mississippi valley and eastern Colorado. Rain was widespread through the northern Atlantic coast states.

Temperatures dropped into the low 30s through North Dakota and northeastern South Dakota. Frost warnings were in effect for South Dakota.

A heavy snow warning continued for the mountains of Colorado. Six inches or more of snow was expected above 9,000 feet.

Temperatures around the nation ranged from 24 at Minot, N.D., Air Force Base to 82 at Brownsville, Tex., and Key West, Fla.

Kidnaped Woman Saved; Man Held

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — After four days of helplessness — bound, gagged and blindfolded in dense woodland — Sheri Linda Jaffa, the kidnaped wife of a wealthy land developer, wasn't sure she could trust her rescuers.

Even as Jacksonville Police Chief Matt Touchton worked with knife and scissors to cut her bound wrists early Sunday, Mrs. Jaffa demanded to see his badge. The men who abducted her last Wednesday had been dressed as policemen.

But the rescue was real, and her husband, Richard, was soon at her side.

"I can't recall what she said when we first saw each other. The big thing is seeing. We kissed and it was the greatest kiss we ever had," her husband said.

Jack McWilliams, 39, the brother of Jaffa's business partner in a Jacksonville contracting business, was charged with the kidnapping and held under $750,000 bond.

He was arrested in jail, where he was serving a weekends-only jail sentence imposed in another case.

Investigators said Mrs. Jaffa's rescue in a wooded area came after McWilliams' girl friend, Edith Burton, 22, broke down under questioning at the jail in Macclenny, 30 miles west of Jacksonville.

"She drew us a map to lead us to the spot but I took her in my car and made her show us," Asst. State Atty. Wayne Ellis said.

Mrs. Burton, who told police she helped in the abduction, hid under a cover in the back seat of the car because she didn't want to see Mrs. Jaffa again, Ellis said.

"We called out ... heard her groan and found her," Ellis said. It was just a mile from her home.

Mrs. Jaffa, 35, was hospitalized for exposure and abrasions but was reported in good condition and high spirits today.

Rescuers said Mrs. Jaffa was badly bitten by mosquitoes and scraped on the back and head from trying to work herself loose from the post to which she was tied, which was similar to a railroad tie and six-foot tall. Her bonds were nailed to the post.

"She wanted to know if her husband and children were all right," Touchton said. "She was in excellent condition for the situation. She had been exposed to rain, heat, cool nights and the tape over her eyes and mouth which naturally makes the skin sore."

Jaffa said his wife will not meet with reporters to discuss her ordeal.

"The most important thing is to get life back to normal," Jaffa said. "She is already discussing a possible European vacation."

After the kidnap, Jaffa received a $200,000 ransom demand. He got $50,000 together, and a trail of notes directed him to leave the money at a spot in the Ocala National Forest.

The money was never picked up, and when the kidnapers made no further contact, Jaffa and his two children made a televised appeal for Mrs. Jaffa's release.

FBI agent Arthur Nehrbass said the accused man, a native of Lumpkin, Ga., is the brother of Aubrey E. McWilliams, a partner with Jaffa in Spectra Builders.

Congress Heading For Election Recess

WASHINGTON (AP) — With senators and congressmen anxious to get on with the business of campaigning, the 94th Congress hopes to complete its major legislative business by Saturday night.

Unfinished business includes bills dealing with the Arab boycott, Washington lobbyists, clean air, offshore oil leases, revenue-sharing and possibly two more vetoes from President Ford.

The House was scheduled to start off today with a $5.1-billion foreign aid appropriation bill and the Senate was still considering a controversial civil rights enforcement bill.

House and Senate leaders say they would like to finish up and go out of business Friday night but that the House may have to stay until Saturday night.

All 435 House seats and 33 of the 100 Senate seats are up for re-election Nov. 2.

Democratic Whip Robert Byrd, D-W.Va., told the Senate that on top of everything else there will be congressional override votes if President Ford vetoes the $56-billion Labor-Health, Education and Welfare department appropriation bill and an antitrust bill.

House-Senate conferees expect to agree on a bill to impose a stiff ban against U.S. participation in the Arab boycott. The House bill would go beyond that and prohibit U.S. companies from boycotting Israel.

Opponents and some supporters say the Arab boycott bill will jeopardize some of the estimated $7-billion U.S. trade with Arab countries and therefore put some Americans out of work.

Another conference committee is deadlocked on the clean air bill. The clean air bill among other things would impose automobile exhaust standards on manufacturers.

There is some doubt that conferees can reach any agreement on the bill, but more and more House conferees say they might give in and accept the stricter Senate bill.

The House is to act on a bill Tuesday to manage oil drilling off all U.S. coasts and send it to the Senate for Congress' final action.

Then the House is to take up a bill to require public disclosure of Washington lobbyists' activities. A compromise would have to be worked out later with a Senate bill.

Two other major unfinished bills would extend sharing of federal revenues with the states and stiffen grain inspection standards in the wake of inspection scandals in New Orleans and Houston.

Another bill added to the list Friday by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee would veto a $30-million sale of Maverick missiles to Saudi Arabia. This is part of a proposed $5-billion U.S. arms sale to Persian Gulf countries.

Weather

Cloudy with showers and thundershowers likely today and tonight. High today in the upper 60s with a low tonight in the upper 40s. Cloudy Tuesday morning, clearing in the afternoon with temperatures in the middle 60s. Chances of precipitation, 90 per cent today, 50 per cent tonight and 20 per cent Tuesday. High Saturday was 75 with a low of 55. Sunday's high was 67 with a low of 63 during the night.

93rd Year — 228

New Tax Cut Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the government reporting a 10.7 per cent jump last year in the number of persons who are poor by its standards, Democrats and Republicans on the Joint Economic Committee of Congress agree another tax cut may be in order next year to spur the economy.

The yearly increase in the number of persons living in poverty was the second in a row and brought the total to 25.9 million persons, roughly one American in eight.

The Census Bureau blamed the increase in 1975 to the whipsaw effect of high inflation in the midst of recession, together with the widespread exhaustion of unemployment benefits last year.

At the same time, the report said that despite an $818 increase in median family income to $13,720 a year, inflation dragged the buying power of that income down 2.6 per cent, the lowest level in five years.

The government defines the poverty level as $5,500 for a nonfarm family of four.

The Census Bureau report was described today by Democratic presidential candidate Jimmy Carter as a clear "indictment of economic mismanagement" by the Ford administration.

In remarks prepared for delivery to a group of labor leaders meeting in Portland, Ore., Carter said: "Mr. Nixon and Mr. Ford have made these people poorer in the same way that Mr. Hoover made people poorer in the 1930s — by denying them the chance to work."

"The Republicans pay lip service to work but they veto bills that would create jobs. They have become a party not of work but of welfare."

The poverty level is determined by computing the cost of a basic nutritionally adequate diet and multiplying that by three, based on the finding that poor people spend one-third of their income on food.

Of the families below the poverty level, 68.7 per cent were white, 47.5 per cent were in families headed by women and 95 per cent lived in non-farm communities.

On the question of future tax reductions, although Republican and Democrats on the panel agreed that further cuts may be needed, they differed on the role that federal spending should play.

Democrats, headed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., chairman of the committee, said that holding spending at current levels would restrict economic growth. But Republican members said spending above current levels would destroy the private sector's ability to create new jobs.

Economics, Crime Campaign Subjects

By JAMES H. RUBIN
Associated Press Writer

President Ford is wrapping up a Southern campaign swing today, stressing conservative themes, while Democratic candidate Jimmy Carter continues to carry his attack on Republican policies to the Far West.

Carter, starting his campaigning today in Portland, Ore., said in remarks prepared for a group of Northwest labor leaders that new figures on poverty in America underscore an "indictment of economic mismanagement" by the Ford Administration.

The U.S. Census Bureau released statistics Saturday which showed there are 2.5 million more Americans below the official poverty line of $5,500 in annual income. The 10.7 per cent increase over last year is the largest jump in the 17 years the bureau has kept records.

Carter said it "means that we are on our way to creating a different kind of Other America, a class that has been called the New Poor."

Ford, who was in Miami today, said in a speech prepared for a Conference of the National Association of Chiefs of Police that he intends, if re-elected, to "stamp out the threat of political terrorism."

He said in the first 100 days of his next administration he would give top priority to federal anticrime legislation. Ford charged that "Congress has done nothing" about a series of anticrime proposals he has submitted.

Carter told audiences in California Sunday that the GOP was to blame for spiraling property taxes burdening homeowners. He proposed to bring property tax relief through revenue-sharing and federal assumption of local welfare costs.

Ford campaigned Sunday along the Mississippi Gulf Coast and, in effect, told voters he was closer to the South ideologically than Carter, its native son.

The President, who was greeted by some conservative Democratic officials along the way, accused Carter of favoring excessive spending for domestic social programs while advocating "disastrous" cuts in defense spending.

Meanwhile, vice presidential candidate Bob Dole, who is doing most of the legwork for the GOP ticket, is in Illinois, attempting to shore up support in farm areas where it has reportedly been wavering.

Sen. Walter F. Mondale, his Democratic rival, said he understood

Auto Talks Show Little Progress

DETROIT (AP) — The nationwide strike against Ford Motor Co. is in its 13th day following sporadic weekend bargaining by top-level officials for the United Auto Workers Union and the No. 2 automaker.

There was no indication early today the two sides were about to enter round-the-clock bargaining or declare a news blackout—two traditional signs signifying impending settlement.

Negotiations in the strike against Ford by 170,000 UAW members were marked Sunday by meetings in which union President Leonard Woodcock and Vice President Ken Bannan conferred with the company's top two negotiators. Neither side would disclose the specific issues discussed.

In an earlier weekend statement, Sidney F. McKenna, Ford's top bargainer, said, "A great many tough issues remain to be resolved, and we are working diligently toward that goal."

He said the talks were covering both economic and noneconomic issues. Robert Middlekauff, director of labor relations planning, was the other top Ford official present at Sunday's sessions.

In addition to the top-level meetings, there was a subcommittee session dealing with health and safety problems.

The strike, which began at midnight Sept. 14 at 102 Ford facilities in 22 states, has completely shut down vehicle production by Ford.

Negotiators are trying to set a master contract at Ford that would serve as a pattern for 700,000 workers at all four major domestic car makers.

Fluorocarbon Use Cut By Consumers

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

Scientists say more time is needed to determine the degree of danger posed by fluorocarbons in aerosols, but some consumers, legislators and manufacturers already have decided they'd rather switch than study.

Production of fluorocarbons has decreased. Sales of aerosols are down — partly because of the controversy and partly because of the recession. Two states have passed laws regulating fluorocarbons in spray cans. And a government official has recommended that consumers stop using aerosols and switch to spray pumps or rollons instead.

A long-awaited report by the National Academy of Sciences was released earlier this month. The group concluded that "selective regulation of fluorocarbon uses and releases is almost certain to be necessary at some time...." It also said, however, that "neither the needed time nor the needed severity can be reasonably specified today."

The academy recommended further study — for a maximum of two years — before regulatory action is taken. Meanwhile, it said, aerosols that do contain fluorocarbons as propellants should be clearly labeled as such so that consumers can decide whether to use the items.

Over half of the fluorocarbons produced in the United States are used as propellants, primarily in personal grooming products such as deodorant and hair spray. The arguments have centered on these fluorocarbons — rather than the ones used as refrigerants and in manufacturing — because they are the ones that are released into the atmosphere immediately.

Scientists have said that fluorocarbons weaken the layer of ozone that surrounds the earth and is a primary shield against ultraviolet radiation which causes skin cancer.

The question still to be answered is how severely and how rapidly the ozone is being depleted.

The Chemical Specialties Manufacturers Association said 1975 sales of aerosols were about 10 to 15 per cent lower than a year earlier, although Gus Fromuth, associate director of the group, said part of the drop was due to the recession. "People were not buying discretionary products," he said.

Some manufacturers of grooming products have been pushing other finger-driven pump sprays and rollons as cheaper, nonaerosol alternatives. The market research firm of Towne-Oller said a study showed that nonaerosols had a 23.5 per cent share of the women's hair spray market in dollar terms in the last quarter of 1975, up from only 4 per cent in 1973.

Bills on fluorocarbons have been introduced in about a dozen states, but only two states have acted — Oregon, which will ban fluorocarbons as aerosol propellants effective March 1, and New York, which is requiring labeling, starting next year, to the effect that fluorocarbons in spray cans may be harmful to the environment.

Sen. James B. Pearson, R-Kan., has introduced legislation in Congress requiring a similar warning label, but there is no time for action on the measure this year.

WINNING TEAM — Roy Strawser, Scott Marshall and Ted Young are members of Jack's Tavern, the winning team in the Wednesday Night Men's Golf League at Upper Lansdowne. They defeated Evans Realty, the first half winners, 10-8 in the playoff. Members of Evans Realty are Damon Welch, John Prince and Johnny Evans. There were ten 3-man teams in the league which lasted 20 weeks.

LANSDOWNE CHAMPION — Damon Welch is congratulated by Upper Lansdowne Golf Course pro Rick Engle upon winning the Club championship. Welch defeated Marty Fullen, 5 and 4 on the 32nd hole for the title. Fullen defeated Doug Marshall and Bill Trimble to gain the finals while Welch defeated Chuck Miller. It marked the first Lansdowne championship title for Welch.

Blacks Reject Rhodesian Settlement

LUSAKA, Zambia (AP) — Presidents of five black African nations have rejected the plan of Rhodesia's white minority rulers to transfer power to the black majority but agreed to confer on establishment interim government.

They called Sunday for a British-sponsored conference to determine the procedure under which Rhodesia's whites will yield power to the blacks. Britain replied it would begin talks within 48 hours to set up such a meeting.

In Salisbury, Rhodesia, Prime Minister Ian Smith reacted tersely to the black leaders' demands, saying, "It looks as though the Communists are calling the tune in those parts." He said he would give "a little bit of attention" to the matter but would await reaction from the United States and Britain.

The Rhodesian foreign minister called the demands "totally unreasonable."

The presidents of Zambia, Tanzania, Mozambique, Angola and Botswana turned down the American-British transition plan agreed to last Friday by Smith and "reaffirmed their commitment to the cause of liberation in Zimbabwe (Rhodesia) and the armed struggle" against Smith's regime.

All five leaders, whose approval is considered vital to a successful settlement in Rhodesia, said that Smith's proposal for an interim government divided between blacks and whites would be "tantamount to legalizing colonialist and racist structures of power."

The presidents, at their summit meeting here, said the interim government must be dominated by blacks.

British Foreign Minister Anthony Crosland said in Blackpool, England, that Minister of State Edward Rowlands would fly to Botswana Tuesday and confer with the five presidents. He said that "the parties concerned" must say where the talks will be held and who will attend.

Rhodesian Foreign Minister P.K. van der Byl said of the Lusaka statement that it would be "totally unreasonable to expect us to change our stand when the proposals were theirs and not ours and we accepted them."

South African Prime Minister John Vorster, who played a major role in persuading Smith to accept the plan put forward by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, called the black presidents' position "difficult to understand."

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices turned mixed today.

After opening trades, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was down .33 to 1,008.98.

But advancing issues led those declining on the New York Stock Exchange by nearly a 3-2 margin.

Early trading was active. The NYSE composite ticker was two minutes late in recording trades at one point.

There was little in the news to give firm direction to the market. Prices started slumping last week when the Federal Reserve Board announced a large increase in the money supply.

The announcement dashed some hopes for an easier credit policy at the Fed. And it apparently reduced the prices — raising the effective yields — of some bonds, which compete with stocks for investors' money.

Early prices today included General Motors, up 1/4 at 72 1/2; General Tire, up 1/4 at 26 1/2; and AT&T, down 1/4 at 61 1/2. The Dow Jones industrial average slipped 1.49 to 1,009.31 on Friday, but finished the week nevertheless with a net gain of 14.21.

Declining NYSE issues led those advancing by a 7-4 margin.

Volume dipped to 17.40 million shares on the Big Board, down from 24.21 million the day before.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index rose .02 to 103.68.

Prices paid to farmers by Pickaway Grain were:

Ear Corn	2.36
Shelled Corn	2.41
Wheat	2.68
Oats	1.60
Beans	6.03

Hog prices, net were paid by Producers Livestock Assn. today as follows:

$1.00 lower $36.25 - $36.75, 200-230 lbs.

NAACP Hopeful In Fund Raising

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

After a weekend of desperate fund raising, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is counting the money, hoping it adds up to $1.6 million.

The organization is required to post that much by Oct. 2 to appeal a $1.2-million damage award granted to 12 white merchants in Mississippi.

NAACP officials say the judgement, if upheld, could irreparably set back the association's efforts toward racial equality.

Before the coast-to-coast weekend drive, the NAACP had collected $750,000.

TRAINING SESSION — The FFA classes of Teays Valley, Westfall and Logan Elm participated in a soils judging training session held recently at the Robert Bowers farm in Saltcreek Twp. The training session was conducted by Niles McLoda of the United States Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service in conjunction with Pickaway Soil and Water conservation District and the schools. Ray Taylor of the Pickaway SCS office was coordinator of the program.

35 Die In Series Of Air Crashes

By The Associated Press

Fifteen Air Force men on a training flight and four pharmaceutical company executives en route with their wives to a meeting at a plush Virginia resort were among 35 persons killed in plane crashes during a deadly six-hour span.

The crashes Sunday in four states left at least 15 children orphaned — children of the Johnson & Johnson subsidiaries' officials who died with their wives in a fiery crash at Hot Springs, Va. Three crew members aboard the company-owned jet also were killed.

In Colorado, a lawyer and his wife returning to Denver from a meeting at a summer and ski resort in Steamboat Springs were among six persons killed in the crash of a twin-engine Aztec Piper which slammed into two propane fuel storage tanks and burst into flames.

And three persons died in Illinois when their single-engine aircraft plunged into the Illinois River near Peoria.

Air Force officials said there were five survivors of the crash of a KC135 tanker jet which went down in a wooded area near Alpena, Mich., sometime after 8:30 a.m. Sunday. That's when Wurtsmith Air Force Base last had radar and radio contact with the pilot.

Two majors, nine captains, two 1st lieutenants and two sergeants died. Three captains and a 1st lieutenant from Kincheloe AFB and an airman 1st class from K.I. Sawyer AFB were admitted to Alpena General Hospital, where four were listed in serious but stable condition and the other in very good condition early today.

The plane, carrying five crew members and 15 passengers, ripped a swath 50 yards wide and half a mile long before crashing into a swamp a mile from the nearest road, witnesses said. The largest remaining recognizable part of the aircraft, the military equivalent of a Boeing 707, was a 20-foot section of tail structure. Survivors were airlifted to the hospital, and the 15 bodies were evacuated to a temporary morgue set up in the same building.

Capt. Charles Pinkard of Wurtsmith, near the crash site in Lower Michigan, said the jet was en route from K.I. Sawyer in the Upper Peninsula to Offutt AFB, Neb., with a stopover at Kincheloe.

He said most of the victims were scheduled to participate in a special training program at Strategic Air Command headquarters.

At Ingalls Field in Hot Springs, the wreckage of the Grumman Gulfstream II jet owned by Johnson & Johnson of New Brunswick, N.J., was spotted by helicopter about 1 p.m. The plane, carrying Johnson subsidiaries officials and their wives from Trenton, N.J., to a Pharmaceutical Manufacturing Association meeting at the Homestead Hotel, plunged into a fog-shrouded mountain ravine and caught fire about 500 feet below the runway.

The airport is surrounded by mountains, and there is a drop off at each end of the runway. Visibility was poor at the time of the crash, and a National Transportation Safety Board spokesman said the last report from the pilot indicated that he was attempting an instrument landing approach.

The spokesman for the NTSB team dispatched to investigate the crash said early today that the pilot apparently made two passes at the runway before the crash.

Dennis Sutton, a Civil Air Patrol member who was the first at the scene, said the plane erupted in fire on impact — "It was totaled, burned. Everything was gone."

It was at about the same time that a twin-engine plane carrying Don R. Evans, partner in the Denver law firm of Yegge, Hall and Evans, and his wife struck two propane fuel storage tanks shortly after takeoff from the Steamboat Springs, Colo., airport.

Evans, 50, and his wife, Garnett, were returning home from his firm's annual meeting at the ski and summer resort community in northwestern Colorado. Four other persons aboard also died.

Federal Aviation Administration spokesman Dave Olds said the Aztec Piper plane struck the storage tanks and was set ablaze soon after takeoff about 1 p.m.

An Illinois crash about 11 a.m. claimed the lives of three Peoria residents en route to Lancaster, Pa., from Mount Hawley airport. State police said the single-engine plane went down in the Illinois River about five miles from Peoria, and the bodies were recovered by Coast Guard and Woodford County Sheriff's Department divers.

A Page Of Opinion

Challenging 'Reform'

In one very important context, the tax reform bill passed by Congress late in this session is no reform at all. After three years of consideration, extensive hearings and some compromise between the House and Senate, the final product further complicated the nation's tax laws rather than simplifying the tax structure.

However one views the individual parts of the bill, and there are so many pieces it is all but impossible to assess the overall effect, the fact is it has immensely complicated an already complex tax situation.

Instead of simplifying the tax code—which was the original intent of reform—by eliminating provisions for special tax considerations where possible, the 1976 bill fills more than 1,000 pages with new special tax situations, many of them added at the last minute and apparently designed for limited use.

What these changes will mean to the average taxpayer won't be known until he sees the resulting changes in tax forms, tax tables and instructions. Already the multitude of changes have been called a boon to CPAs and tax attorneys who will be occupied for years in challenging and testing its provisions.

Doing My Best

By JIM BISHOP

It was a hot day in Los Angeles. The giant city broiled. Kelly and I took a cab from the Beverly Hills Hotel downtown. It was a long haul with no shock absorbers and a rear end which ran like a pencil sharpener. We bounced like irritated strangers.

This was a day that I was dressed like an author. I wore a white-on-white shirt, a diagonally striped tie of black and pale blue, a new black silk suit, high gloss black shoes, and white hair parted on the right side.

The taxi driver said the address was a blind alley. Kelly shrugged. Her blonde hair was tied in a bun on the back of her head. The pale blue silk dress - no matter what she wore she looked like a classic Greek coin. If she irritated me on a hot day, I'd spend her.

It was a blind alley. The television studio was set up inside something that looked like a World War I hangar. I hoped there was air conditioning in the studio. It was dark. I fell over the lintel to one knee.

I swore. Somebody said "Shh!" Kelly whispered, "I can't take you anywhere." I got to my feet. It was a big empty darkness. We walked around a painted scene of cool woodlands and saw a couch, a man and a camera.

The man pointed to the couch. We sat. There was a lot of silence. I was here to promote a book. I had a head full of two kinds of answers: one in case he read the book; one in case he hadn't.

He came to the couch and whispered, "I'm Joe. I run the afternoon movie. We'll put you on at the commercials." He asked Mrs. B. to get off the couch. He was back in front of his camera just in time to watch Sonny Tufts fall off a horse, wounded, into the arms of Lupe Velez. The little monitor went blank and Joe came on. He talked about Zest soap and Oxydol. Then he extolled the virtues of a water bed and who to call to condemn all the cockroaches in the kitchen.

Sonny Tufts came back. He didn't die. The movie did. I wondered why writers must not only write books, but go to dank studios to sell them. In his letter, this man said he had 200,000 Los Angeles housewives working at ironing boards every afternoon, all of them panting to buy my book.

I let a cigarette. In the darkness behind the camera, I noticed a second man. He wore rabbit ears. I became interested in the monitor. I knew 200,000 housewives were burning the old man's shorts watching Sonny Tufts fight seven maddened Indians inside a prairie hut.

He killed them one by one while his wife leaned against the log cabin wall with her fist in her mouth. Tufts pulled an arrow out of his shoulder and made a face. One thing - he had guts. Another thing - I had guts watching.

The monitor went blank. Joe motioned to me to put the cigarette out. There was no ashtray. I couldn't extinguish it on the little 5 by 7 rug. I squeezed the light between my fingers and, like Sonny, I made a face.

Joe came over. He sat beside me, one arm over the back of the couch. He said what he says to all hacks. "One of the greatest writers of our time - loved his new book - tell the people the name of it." My face, in repose, is Early Cast Iron. I wondered what would happen if I killed Joe live, on camera.

I spoke like a parrot. The best way to appear at ease is to cross your legs and clasp your hands over them. It is pose 3-E for authors caught in a impossible situation. The book was a matter of history. Joe asked me how it came out at the end.

I took my hands off the knee. Something began to unravel. I looked. My bare knee was exposed. The fall has loosened a thread, or a series of them. Quietly the silk suit came apart. The crease on the leg opened until my leg was exposed from the lower shin to the white shorts.

Joe stared as though I was kinky. I started to choke. Then I laughed. The whole hairy leg was exposed. I noticed smoke. It was coming from between the cushions of the couch. My cigarette had set fire to it.

I slapped a hand on the cushion. Blue smoke shrouded the couch. "Good," I said between convulsions. "Everybody back to the ironing board."

Ex-POW Passes Bar Examination

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Former prisoner of war John Downey, who spent 21 years in a Chinese detention center, has passed the Connecticut bar exam. Downey, who graduated last June from Harvard Law School and took a course at Yale Law School during the summer to prepare himself for the Connecticut test, says he'll enter private practice in the New Haven area.

Results of the Connecticut bar exams were released Friday by the New Haven Superior Court clerk.

Downey, shot down over China on a flight from Japan to Korea in 1952 during the Korean War, was a civilian employee of the Army when he was taken prisoner. He was released in March 1973, two months after former President Richard Nixon admitted that Downey was an American spy.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, September 27, the 271st day of 1976. There are 95 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1964, the Warren Commission issued its report concluding that Lee Harvey Oswald had acted alone in the assassination of President John Kennedy.

On this date —

In 1779, John Adams was named to negotiate Revolutionary War peace terms with Britain.

In 1825, in England, George Stephenson operated the first locomotive to haul a passenger train.

In 1904, a policeman in New York arrested a woman he had seen smoking a cigarette in a car on Fifth Avenue.

In 1939, during World War II, Warsaw, Poland was surrendered to the Germans after 19 days of heavy air raids and artillery bombardment.

In 1940, also during World War II, a pact was signed in Germany setting up the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo Axis.

In 1959, a typhoon that battered the Japanese island of Honshu killed nearly 5,000 people.

Ten years ago: Two U.S. Marine planes bombed a friendly village in South Vietnam by mistake, killing 28 mountain tribesmen.

Five years ago: President Richard Nixon and Emperor Hirohito of Japan met in Anchorage, Alaska. It was the first meeting between an American president and a Japanese Emperor.

One year ago: There was a storm of protest in Europe over the Spanish government's execution of five young political terrorists.

Today's birthday: Former movie star George Raft is 81.

Thought for today: The greater the power, the more dangerous the abuse. — Edmund Burke, British statesman, 1729-1797.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, Venice's ambassador to London reported to his government that American ships had begun to challenge British ships even in their own channels and to capture vessels trading with Portugal, Africa and Italy.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I go into one depression after another. I go from doctor to doctor, appealing for help. I feel temporarily better and then, before I can enjoy a period of happiness, I fall right back into a well of despair.

Mrs. D. K., Nev.

Dear Mrs. K.:

The fact that you are going from doctor to doctor in an effort to find a solution to your problem may be an important part of your problem.

There are physical and emotional causes for depression. Sometimes, they are separate from each other. More often, they are closely interrelated. Mild or severe depression can come as an overlay to a physical illness. In such instances, it is imperative that the cause of that physical illness be established and intensively treated.

In other instances, depression may come on without any specific physical disturbance. In such cases, it is necessary to seek the help and guidance of a psychiatrist or a psychologist because they are specially trained.

During periods of depression, patients want a solution to their problem. When this is delayed, patients like yourself run from doctor to doctor, without giving any single one the opportunity or time to establish the factors responsible for depression.

At present, vast strides have been made in the field of anti-depressant drugs. When carefully chosen and specifically tailored to the needs of each patient, in combination with psychotherapy, depression is controllable, and even conquerable.

Is cirrhosis of the liver always a fatal disease?

Mr. N. V. D., Fla.

Dear Mr. D.:

No, it's not. There are now a great many highly sensitive tests and enzyme studies which bring early cirrhosis to the diagnostic attention of the doctor.

When it is suspected and treated immediately, and when its cause is eliminated, people with early stages of cirrhosis can be expected to live out a normal period of years.

There comes a time, however, when cirrhosis has been untreated and when its cause has not been eliminated, that this liver disease can become irreversible.

The liver is a remarkable organ that often can function despite some cirrhotic changes. It cannot be expected to overcome the handicap of years of neglect.

Mexican Government Battles Inflation

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The government has imposed new price controls and recommended hefty wage hikes to offset the instant inflation that hit Mexico with the devaluation of the peso. As a result, organized labor has called off a general strike.

The economic package ordered Friday by President Luis Echeverria means prices that have risen 20 per cent or more in the past month will be rolled back to 10 per cent increases, while workers receive wage boosts of 16 to 23 per cent.

Echeverria's program to stabilize the national economy came as Mexico's labor unions were threatening a nationwide strike for next Tuesday because their wages could not keep up with the rampaging inflation.

On Aug. 31, Echeverria decided to let the Mexican peso "float" on international money markets after it had been tied at a set exchange rate with the U.S. dollar for 22 years. The peso's value plunged from 12.50 to 19.90 to the dollar, jolting the Mexican economy.

The devaluation was aimed at boosting exports and tourism by making Mexican goods and services cheaper for buyers with foreign currencies. But it induced an almost overnight inflation by making imported goods considerably more expensive.

Shopkeepers marked up prices sharply, and labor leaders immediately demanded pay boosts to meet the skyrocketing cost of living.

The new pay guidelines, "strongly recommended" by Echeverria and expected to be followed by most employers, are retroactive to Sept. 1.

Workers receiving the equivalent of $118 to $502 a month will get 23 per cent raises, those making $503 to $1,005 will get 21 per cent increases, and those in the highest bracket will receive 16 per cent.

This means that a factory worker earning the federal minimum wage of $3.93 a day — or $118 a month — will get 90 cents a day more.

Woman Real Handy Building Log Cabins

SOUTH LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Dolly Smith may not be a wizard at baking bread, but she can build a log cabin with nothing but a chain saw.

And, if that's not enough, she can build a fireplace with nothing but river stones, a screwdriver and a whisk-broom.

Or to pass away the remainder of her time she's likely to dig a basement.

"Us hillbilly girls, there ain't nothin' we can't do," she said, expressing disbelief when informed not every housewife splits wood and puts roofs on houses.

"Well, we just about died working on that cabin," she said, referring to a 16 by 20 foot cabin she and her husband built from scratch in rural Adams County. Working on logs cut down from their property, the couple built the handsome cabin with a stone fireplace.

Stone fireplace-making is getting to be her specialty, although she vows that she'll never make another.

She's already built two fireplaces, one for herself at her home here and another for her daughter.

"Someone just builds a hole and I lay the stone and brick," she said. "I figure out what kind of pieces I want and just go to work on it."

She likens it to fitting together a puzzle, "but I always follow my idea." She once dug out a full basement underneath her house on days when her husband worked and she had free time.

"I was raised on a farm and there were 11 kids in my family," she said. "I was the oldest girl. I washed dishes when I was old enough to stand on a chair."

"I got married when I was 15. I did the same things as before. I had to wash on a board because there wasn't any electricity."

Before serving each meal, she used to go to the well to get butter and milk where it was hung in order to keep it cool.

Mrs. Smith has never considered any of her jobs as "hardships."

"People before me lived even harder than that," she said.

Stuck

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Credit the capture of a robbery suspect to a bathroom window.

Sheriff's officers said that when they tried to serve a warrant to the suspect, a 19-year-old youth, he tried to elude them by slipping through the bathroom window. The window wasn't quite big enough, however, and the suspect got stuck.

It took several men to free the youth, officers said.

They'll Do It Every Time

Ohio Senate Report

By OAKLEY C. COLLINS
17th District Senator

The legislature finished up the last scheduled session before the November elections. Some important issues were resolved, some only halfway solved, and other left in limbo.

As reported previously, majority leaders in the legislature broke tradition by refusing to allow Governor Rhodes to address a joint legislative session on urban problems and the Medicaid crisis. He delivered the address in the Statehouse rotunda.

The Governor feels unemployment, crime, and deterioration in our cities are serious enough to call another special session of the legislature. He has asked the House Speaker and Senate President Pro Tem to reconvene to grapple with the issues.

To date there are four Administration-backed bills pending that promote economic development in blighted area with high unemployment.

Unemployment statewide is about 7 per cent and in some cities as high as 40 per cent among persons under 30. A better economic picture would cut the costs of welfare, crime prevention, and unemployment compensation.

It is generally not understood that tax incentives for economic development in the inner cities would not cost taxpayers anything. These areas do not now provide business tax revenues, because there is very little industry in such locations. Government can't lose revenues it doesn't have.

In addition, three new administration proposals allow for negotiation of tax incentives terms by local government, and assessment of new businesses for city services (water, fire and police protection, sewers, etc.).

The growing Medicaid crisis was only partially solved by passage of a bill (H.B. 1546) providing somewhat over $100 million for Medicaid through June, 1977.

Underfunding of Ohio's Medicaid program threatened a $160 million deficit in the Welfare Department. Majority Democrats first maintained there was no deficit, then admitted a $114 million deficit, and finally conceded the gap is closer to $160 million.

H.B. 1546 is supposed to provide $159.5 million, but it is doubtful. Some of the money appropriated is not available, the Welfare Department has already implemented some cost-cutting steps recommended in the bill, and other savings will not be realized until the next fiscal year.

The additional funds do, however, make a planned 12 per cent cut in Aid to Dependent Children unnecessary. The difference between the deficit and what was appropriated will be made up by a 1.5 per cent across-the-board spending cut ordered by Governor Rhodes.

The 1.5 per cent cut is in addition to the present 2.0 per cent cut. It applies to all departments except Corrections and Rehabilitation, which has a record prison population. The cuts are necessary to balance the budget and avoid an immediate tax increase.

Passage of H.B. 12 re-creates a Civilian Conservation Corps in Ohio for Ohio residents at least 16 years old.

The agency, under the state Department of Natural Resources, will develop programs relating to development and management of natural resources: forest management, drainage, shore erosion control, land reclamation, insect and pest control, etc.

Participants must sign up for at least six months, and will receive lodging, food, clothing, health care, and $100 per month.

State law defines the type of construction work and leasing arrangements non-charter municipal corporations may undertake. The legislature approved H.B. 439 which would allow municipal corporations to build, rehabilitate, lease, and operate housing for senior citizens with low or moderate incomes.

The Senate passed a bill (S.B. 481) that would liberalize phone companies directory assistance charges.

S.B. 481 prohibits phone companies from charging for the first seven information calls made each month, or for assistance in finding numbers that are not listed in the directory. The current monthly limit on free information calls is now three or four in most parts of the state.

The bill may be considered by the House in November.

Both houses approved and sent to the Governor a major bill (SB 545) overhauling the state's workmen's compensation system.

S.B. 545 changes the system's name to workers compensation. It gives the Attorney General greater power to investigate suspected fraud in the system, limits Ohio Industrial Commission (OIC) members to two consecutive terms, establishes a procedure for removing an OIC commissioner, and takes the Administrator of the Bureau of Worker's Compensation out of the Governor's cabinet.

The bill also redefines the relationship between OIC and BWC, and reforms hearing and appeals procedures on claims, and bans power of attorney in signing for claim checks.

Reform of workmen's compensation stems from a six month investigation of alleged illegal claim payments, lost and forged documents, and inefficient processing of claims.

Several major items were not dealt with. A bill (HB 784) that substantially raises the salaries of elected county officials and bans their political "flower funds" bogged down over Senate-House differences. It will be taken up again November 9.

A major revision in Ohio's 3½ month-old bingo law failed to get enough votes in the House to pass as an emergency measure.

H.B. 1547 would allow bingo games to be conducted by senior citizens social groups, veterans organizations, fraternal and beneficial lodges, volunteer firefighter and rescue units, medical research and car organizations (heart fund, multiple sclerosis, etc.), and youth athletic boosters.

The bill will probably be reconsidered in November.

The Senator majority caved into pressure from organized labor, and refused to vote on removal of Gregory Stebbins from the Ohio Industrial Commission.

Stebbins was appointed to the commission by Governor Gilligan, and has close ties to organized labor.

Governor Rhodes asked Senate concurrence to remove Stebbins on 10 counts of corruption and dereliction of duty. The Senate Judiciary committee recommended, in a bipartisan vote, that Stebbins be fired.

Look for four constitutional amendments proposed by Ohioans for Utility Reform (OUR) to be on the ballot in November.

A group opposing the OUR amendments challenged them in court because signatures for all four petitions were gathered on one petition, but the Ohio Supreme Court ruled them OK. Traditionally, a separate petition is circulated for each proposal.

I again urge every voter to be thoroughly informed in these issues. They have serious implications for Ohio's long range economic growth, and the cost of utility service.

Brown Backs Metzenbaum

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Howard Metzenbaum, the Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, has picked up the support of California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. in the Clevelanders' running feud with Sen. Robert Taft, R-Ohio, over the nation's defense budget.

The youthful Californian also put in a plug at a Columbus news conference Friday for two Democratic congressional candidates, Fran Ryan of Columbus and John C. McDonald of Newark.

Brown told reporters he agrees with Metzenbaum that there are billions of dollars of waste in the Pentagon and depicted the Ford Administration as "pitching for your dollars to pour down a rathole."

Metzenbaum, running against Taft in the Nov. 2 election, advocates trimming about $15 billion or possibly more from defense spending, claiming it can be done without impairment to U.S. defense capability.

Brown said "wrong headed policy initiatives" in the Nixon-Ford Administration have cost billions, especially in Africa and Southeast Asia. "We blew $8 billion in Thailand," he said.

Local Government Payrolls Zoom

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The local government payroll has increased by 80,663 employees or 30.4 per cent in the last 10 years, a research council reports.

In October of 1975, Ohio's counties, cities, townships and school districts employed 345,723 persons with a total payroll of $308 million, according to the Ohio Public Expenditure Council. That represents a $185 million or 149 per cent rise in local payrolls since October of 1965.

"Governments and taxpayers alike are caught by the spiraling inflationary trend in the costs of operation," the council said. "Salaries and wages consumed, by far, the major portion of governmental expenditures."

School employees account for more than 51 per cent of the increase in the work force. But the 41,225 persons added by schools marked only a 29 per cent increase since 1965 in the school district category.

Cleveland, Ohio's largest city, was also the biggest employer last year, paying 12,637 workers an average monthly salary of $1,054.

"Cleveland, however, was second to Cincinnati in the number of city employees per 10,000 population," the council noted. "Cincinnati had 255 employees per 10,000 population in October, 1975, compared to 186 employees per 10,000 population in Cleveland."

Cincinnati paid its workers an average $947 a month. Toledo paid its 3,886 employees the highest average salary at $1,099, monthly.

Here are other major city payrolls: Columbus, 6,663, average salary $1,024; Dayton, 3,594, average salary $937; Akron, 3,123, average salary $1,098, and Youngstown, 1,605, average salary $876.

Among counties, Cuyahoga, encompassing Cleveland, employed the most personnel by far, 12,025, or 73 per 10,000 population. They were paid an average monthly salary of $1,272 last year, the council said.

"However, compared to the other big 10 counties, Cuyahoga had a large number of hospital employees (3,890)," the research group said. "When county hospital employees are deleted, both Montgomery County with 61 employees per 10,000 per population and Mahoning County with 53 employees per 10,000 ranked higher than Cuyahoga." The legislature was unable to reach agreement recently on a bill that would have granted elected county officials average pay increases of 34 per cent. The matter was put off until after the Nov. 2 election.

Dean Says Ford Had 'Problems'

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — When Gerald R. Ford was House Republican leader he may have had some problems with unreported campaign contributions, says John W. Dean III, quoting a 1972 conversation with chief White House lobbyist William E. Timmons.

The remark about Ford is contained in Dean's book about Watergate to be published next month under the title "Blind Ambition." Dean was the young White House counsel whose testimony against President Richard M. Nixon in the Watergate coverup case eventually led to Nixon's resignation.

Timmons, the supposed source of the Ford story, was quoted Thursday as denying Dean's account. The White House said President Ford would have no comment.

Circleville High School Class Of 1926 Holds Golden Anniversary Reunion

Ludwig Haecker, Ervin Leist, Luther Bower, Forrest Liston, Thoburn Blaney, Helen Schiear Kebler, Helen Bartholomew George, Franklin Kibler, Ruth Holman Bastow, Lucy Seall, Ellen Dowden Camp, Florence Gussman Mason, Elizabeth Goodchild Lumpe, Iola Wentworth Owens, Carl Leist and Mary Walters.

Members of the 1926 graduating class of Circleville High School held their Golden Anniversary reunion recently at the Pickaway Arms. Thirty-nine persons attended including 25 class members, spouses and guests.

Punch was served during a greeting and reminiscing period preceding the dinner. Each class member was given an identification card to wear which bore a reproduction of his graduation picture. The class colors, purple and gold were reflected in the decorations. Carl Leist was master of ceremonies and opened the program by recalling amusing incidents from school years. He introduced guest teachers, Miss Margaret Mattinson, to whom the 1926 year book had been dedicated, Miss Velma Watson, and Miss Elma Rains.

Immediately preceding the dinner and later in the evening, class members Norman Aronson amused the group with card tricks. Norman currently entertains at the Embers in Miami Beach, Fla. He has entertained in many hotels in New York and Miami and formerly was featured in LIFE magazine and United Press International.

Class members and guest teachers were called upon to introduce spouses and give a brief account of their lives during the past 50 years. Humorous readings were given extemporaneously by Ruth Holman Bastow and Ervin Leist.

Mary Walters read letters from the following classmates who were unable to be present: Elton Adams, Cullowhee, N.C.; Renick Caldwell, Miami, Fla.; Scott Eagleson, Escanaba, Mich.; Katherine Eyman Maier, Cincinnati; Irene Knotts Siniff, Grafton, Ohio; Don Myers, Vero Beach, Fla.; and Norma Ross Woods, Bakersfield, Calif.

Carl Leist read the names of the twenty deceased members of the class and a silent tribute was observed in their memory.

Guest teachers were presented bicentennial pendants, and bicentennial keyrings were given to emcee Carl Leist and to class members in the following categories: member who traveled the greatest distance, Norman Aronson and Ervin Leist; member with the most children, Evelyn Adkins Morris; member with the most grandchildren, Gladys Wentworth Beeler; member with the most great-grandchildren, Alberta Wing Sterner.

Class members residing in Circleville who attended were Mrs. Helen Bartholomew George, Mr. and Mrs. Thoburn Blaney, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bower, Mrs. Ellen Dowden Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Lumpe (Elizabeth Goodchild), J. Ludwig Haecker, Miss Wilmine Haecker, Mrs. Ruth Holman Bastow, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Kibler (Helen Schiear), Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leist, Miss Lucy Seall, Mrs. Maxine Stevenson Dowler and Miss Mary Walters.

Out-of-town members were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morris (Evelyn Adkins), Dayton; Norman Aronson, Miami Beach, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Leist, Clearwater, Fla.; Forrest Liston, Miamisburg; Mrs. Wendell Boyer (Kathryn Marion), Columbus; Mrs. George Kennedy (Eleanor Ryan), Columbus; Mrs. Myles Beeler (Gladys Wentworth), Wooster; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Owens (Iola Wentworth), Ludlow Falls; Mrs. Alberta Wing Sterner, Columbus.

The group closed the celebration by singing the Red and Black. Arrangements for the occasion were made by Maxine Dowler, Helen Kibler and Mary Walters.

New Henry Miller Book In French

PARIS (AP) — Author Henry Miller, famous for his "Tropic of Cancer," has produced his first book written in French. "I'm Not Stupidier than Anyone Else" is a 60-page monologue examining literature, war, language and memories.

Miller, who has lived in Paris for the past 40 years, says his grammatical mistakes are uncorrected and the style of his new book, like its title, is conversational.

Circleville BPW Club Has Membership Night

Delores Chambers of Delaware, vice-president of the State Federation Business and Professional Women's Club, was guest speaker for the Thursday evening dinner meeting of Circleville BPW Club.

Following the dinner for members and guests on "Membership Night" at Pickaway Arms, Louise Hill, president of the local club, introduced Mrs. Chambers. She said that BPW was first organized in St. Louis, Mo., as it was felt there was a need for aiding working women. It is the largest club of its kind with 165,000 members in 3,800 clubs which are non-profit and non-sectarian.

Supported by dues, the federation has offices in Washington D.C. where information is available in many different areas along with tapes for programs.

Mrs. Chambers said that upon ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment, legislators will undoubtedly take a look at out-dated laws and many will be rewritten.

BPW Clubs are guided by their individual needs in the community but are given guidance by the state and national organizations. They are not service clubs but play an important part in community activities.

She reminded members that the third week in October is National Businesswoman's Week and of the Young Careers programs. The Speak-Off program for members of ages 21-28 sends winners from local and state federations to the national competition.

The goal this year is to increase membership in all clubs. Awards will be given to those who bring three new members into a club and those who bring in three under the age of 28. Mrs. Chambers concluded her talk by saying that members are the most important part of the organization.

Rosemary Watters distributed tickets to sell and a cash raffle with the drawing to be held on Dec. 15.

Jean Droste will be the speaker for Legislation Day on Oct. 28. A dessert smorgasbord will follow the business session.

Winners of door prizes were: Rosemary Good, Margaret Remy, Mary Howard, Louise Hill, Mary Wolfe, Meg Bower, Helen Hammel, Eleanor Taylor, Mary Alice Greenwood, Sally Dupler, Nancy Conrad, Trudy Sharrett, Rosemary Watters, Leora Sayre, Delores Chambers, Phyllis Bradshaw, Sue Fouch, Kathy Henn, Harriet Kaylor, Marsha Hoffman, Etha Mae Wolford, Eileen Easterday, Jean Shockley, Emma Curlett, and Marion Sines.

Donors were: Sharff's, Sara Dresbach, Roger Koch, John Bost, Sentry Hardware, Dwight Radcliff, Judge William Ammer, Christopher's Don Boutique, Butch Jewelers, Third National Bank, Henn House, James Kingsley, Paul Schein, Second National Bank and The Circleville Herald.

Chairman for the dinner and program was Phyllis Bradshaw assisted by Marion Sines and Marsha Hoffman.

Four of the children of John Brown, leader of the Harper's Ferry Raid, are buried in a single grave in Richfield Cemetery in Summit County. All died in September, 1843, probably victims of one of the epidemics common in those days.—AP

Irish Terrorist Inmates In Revolt

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — "The men behind the wire," 1,200 convicted terrorists in Northern Ireland's prison camps, are in virtual revolt because the British government has abolished their special category status.

The mainly Roman Catholic Irish Republican Army's "Provisional" wing and its two main Protestant rivals, the Ulster Defense Association (UDA) and the Ulster Volunteer Force (UVF), have vowed they will not surrender what they consider their "political prisoner" status without a fight.

The British plan is aimed at stripping the prisoners of the political respectability they claim is the reason for their acts. These range from assassinations and bombings to theft and intimidation.

The British plan also means that anyone convicted of terrorism from hereon will be placed in a cell, along with common criminals, instead of war prisoner-style compounds.

The fate of the men behind the wire—so named after a song written by an ex-prisoner—has long been an emotional issue among extremists on both sides in the province's sectarian conflict.

The prisoners are hailed as heroes by their coreligionists.

The IRA, fighting to end British rule and Protestant domination in Ulster, consider their jailed men as prisoners of war.

The Protestants, who want to remain British, view the Protestant prisoners as patriots fighting rebels opposed to Queen Elizabeth II.

Both sides are bitter about the government's campaign to portray their men as criminals and gangsters. Since the British last December phased out internment without trial of suspected terrorists, which put more than 1,000 other men in prison, both sides have seized on the abolition of special category status as an issue to keep the warscarred province on the boil.

The extremists regard their so-called political prisoner status as a hard-won right. The system was introduced in mid-1972 by William Whitelaw, then Britain's Northern Ireland secretary, after several hungerstriking prisoners, demanding special treatment, nearly died.

Whitelaw also did so to induce the IRA to declare a cease-fire. But the truce was short-lived.

Special category prisoners in the two main prison camps are kept in prisoner-of-war style compounds, rather than in the cells in which ordinary criminals, including rapists and muggers, are locked up.

Convicted terrorists are permitted weekly visits instead of the monthly visits the ordinary criminals are allowed. They get extra food parcels, are excused from prison work and can wear their own clothes instead of prison uniforms.

Polio Cases Reported

WASHINGTON (AP) — Polio cases caused by live-virus polio vaccinations now exceed cases that occur naturally, but the total number of cases from all causes averages only about a dozen a year, scientists say.

Dr. Jonas Salk and others told a Senate health subcommittee hearing Thursday that live-virus vaccine can give the disease to the person it is supposed to protect.

"At the present time," Salk said, "the risk of acquiring polio from the live-virus vaccine is greater than from naturally occurring viruses."

Dr. Robert A. Aldrich of the University of Colorado Medical Center told the panel the live virus vaccine presented "a small but distinct risk of polio."

Salk invented the first polio vaccine, a dead-virus type that dramatically cut the peak number of cases of polio in the 1950s by 95 per cent.

In 1961, federal health authorities recommended that the oral, live-virus vaccine invented by Dr. Albert Sabin be the only one used, and the Salk vaccine fell into disuse. Salk's vaccine is no longer even produced in the United States.

Dear Abby:

Don't Force Son To Get College Degree

DEAR ABBY: Our middle son, Andy, is a very intelligent young man of 19. He went to college for one year just to please us, then he quit, saying, "I don't want to waste any more of my time and your money."

His grades were fine, but he says he prefers working with his hands. He's now enrolled in a trade school and we're so disappointed in him!

I'm not putting down people who work with their hands, Abby, but it seems to me that people who work with their hands do so because they aren't smart enough to work with their minds.

Andy's father is a professional man, and both of Andy's brothers plan to enter professions.

Please say in your column that a college degree is absolutely necessary these days. After Andy graduates from college he can do anything he chooses, but we desperately want him to have a college degree first. Thank you.

ANDY'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I disagree. College is NOT for everybody. If Andy prefers to work with his hands, that's what he should do.

It's not true that people work with their hands because they aren't smart enough to work with their minds. Some handwork requires more skill, talent and know-how than many professions. You do your son a tremendous disservice by telling him he's "disappointed you" and urging him to go to college. Change your tune.

DEAR ABBY: A friend of mine was married for 22 years when her husband died. Two years later she married another man. That marriage lasted about a year and ended in divorce.

She calls herself a widow now. Inasmuch as her most current status was that of a divorcee, shouldn't she be calling herself a divorcee instead of a widow?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: Technically she's a divorcee, but if she wants to call herself a widow, it's all right with me.

DEAR ABBY: My date and I were dining out, and as he was adding the tip to the credit card, the waiter said, "Don't bother adding the tip to that—I won't get it anyway." Then the waiter explained that after the restaurants are reimbursed by the credit card companies, the waiters rarely get their tips.

Abby, with so many diners paying with credit cards, I'll bet a lot of waiters get gypped this way.

You'd be doing waiters a tremendous service if you'd ask people who use credit cards to give the waiter his tip in cash. Thanks.

MARION

DEAR MARION: The top credit card companies and restaurants state that waiters are reimbursed immediately by their employers for their tips. Most waiters insure themselves against being gypped by keeping a record of the tips due them.

Dole Does About-Face On Issue

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Republican vice presidential candidate Bob Dole, who had been accusing Jimmy Carter of constantly shifting positions, is displaying something of an about-face himself on a politically touchy farm labor issue.

Campaigning in California, Dole was asked Friday by a heavily Democratic Mexican-American group in Hollywood where he stands on Proposition 14, a state measure that would make it easier for union organizers to come onto private farms to seek new members.

Dole told the group, "I haven't taken a public stand."

But he had sharply criticized the proposal the week before in San Francisco, and he mentioned it critically in campaign appearances this week in the Midwest.

Later, Dole denied making the comment about not taking a stand to the Mexican-American group, even though some reporters told him they had tape recorded his words.

Dole told reports that "I didn't tell them that. I've taken a public stand — up in San Francisco." Dole then said he was opposed to the issue, which will be on California's Nov. 2 ballot.

However, several hours later, Dole was again claiming that he had not taken a public stand on Proposition 14. He made that comment both in a television interview in Los Angeles and in an address to GOP leaders in Anaheim. He told the Anaheim group: "I haven't taken any public stand. But I'm against Proposition 14."

Employment Up Slightly In State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Total employment in Ohio advanced 2 per cent in the year period ended in August, the Bureau of Employment Services reported.

The agency also reported that from August 1975 to August 1976, the unemployment rate for Ohio fell from 8.9 per cent to 6.4 per cent of the civilian labor force. And, during that period, nonagricultural wage and salary jobs increased 1.5 per cent.

At the end of August this year, unemployment in Ohio was estimated at 298,000 in August, or 6.4 per cent of the civilian labor force. That was down from 331,000 and 7 per cent in July. However, the BES said the decrease was mainly seasonal.

Total employment slipped .4 per cent to 4,374 million in August. Nonagricultural worker payrolls numbered 4,044 million, equal to July.

Employment in Ohio's non-manufacturing industries slipped .2 per cent from July, to 2,779 million in August. Seasonal reductions in non-teaching personnel of public schools accounted for most of the decrease.

The Ohio factory production worker earned $29 extra for a one-hour longer average work week during the year ended Aug. 31, according to the bureau.

Stepped-up overtime at premium pay raised hours and earnings averages for workers producing heating equipment, industrial fasteners, and special industry machinery, the BES said. Wage-rate increases mainly were responsible for higher earnings in the basic steel and iron castings industries. Producers of nonferrous castings and paper products, however, reported curtailed overtime.

Average weekly earnings of production workers in Ohio factories increased $1 from July to $253.17 in August, on a par with June's record high. The average workweek, 41.3 hours, was unchanged.

OGA Attacks Amendment

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Gas Association has urged defeat of the so-called "lifetime rate" amendment to the state constitution, saying it "is nothing but a partial solution to a real need which may assist the wrong people."

Charles T. Cummings, president of River Gas Co. and of the association, said amendment, Issue 4 on this November's ballot, "is not the answer."

The proposed amendment would require utilities to adopt a rate structure requiring subsistence amounts of gas and electricity be provided at a cost "no more than the average rate charged by their utility to all users..."

Under present rate structures, small users of gas and electricity are charged at a higher unit rate than volume customers.

In a statement Thursday, Cummings noted that the rates in the amendment "are based solely on energy usage. There is no mention of need or minimum incomes to qualify."

"This amendment favors small families in well-insulated homes with modern, efficient furnaces and appliances," he said. "It would not help those families who, regardless of need or income, use more than the minimum quantities of gas and electricity specified and families that depend on coal, propane or oil for heat."

EPA Suspends Gasoline Lead Regulations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Environmental Protection Agency is suspending its drive to lower the amount of lead in gasoline because studies show it would lead to gasoline shortages in the next two years.

Lead is used to boost gasoline octane. Without lead more crude oil would have to be used to obtain the same octane level.

The agency's announcement Friday came one week before regulations were to go into effect calling for a sharp reduction of lead content over the next three years.

Instead, the agency said it would allow refiners to keep lead content at its current level for the three-year period and to make the total reduction in one step after the grace period expires.

Leaded gas, used in all cars not equipped with the pollution-reducing catalytic converters, has long been considered a potential health hazard. The EPA ruled earlier that phasing out the lead content was necessary to prevent a significant risk to human health.

The agency decision to delay the regulations, which first were proposed in 1973, is likely to be challenged by environmental groups.

EPA Administrator Russell Train said the new regulations "will meet the same ultimate goal as the original standards but will not do so at the expense of another gas shortage."

EPA originally planned to require refiners to use no more than 1.4 grams of lead per gallon of gas after Oct. 1. This amount would be decreased to 1 gram per gallon in 1977, to 0.8 grams per gallon in 1978 and to 0.5 grams per gallon on Jan. 1, 1979. The agency estimates the lead content in gasoline now ranges from 1.6 grams per gallon to 1.9 grams per gallon.

The new timetable eliminates the Oct. 1 and the 1977 reductions and says EPA will waive the 1978 standard as well so long as refiners can show they are in the process of procuring and installing the equipment necessary to reach the final goal of 0.5 grams per gallon. This final goal would become effective on Oct. 1, 1979 instead of on Jan. 1 of that year.

NAACP In Bind; Needs $1.6 Million

ATLANTA (AP) — Mayor Maynard Jackson, standing on the sidewalk hat-in-hand asking for contributions, is leading a "last hours" struggle by black city officials to save the NAACP from what he says could be financial disaster.

The NAACP must post a $1.6 million bond in a Chancery Court in Mississippi by Oct. 2 if it is to appeal a $1.2 million lawsuit won by 12 white merchants in Port Gibson, Miss. The state requires the posting of a bond covering 125 per cent of a court award in order to carry out an appeal.

An NAACP spokesman in Mississippi said the association has raised $750,000, including pledges.

The merchants charged the NAACP with conspiracy in a 1966 boycott, in which the civil rights group picketed the businesses to protest what they said was discrimination in hiring.

Jackson called on all Atlanta churches and synagogues on Friday night to collect special offerings Sunday "to support the efforts to resist those who would undo the gains achieved at the price of far too many human lives."

He said if the NAACP is required to meet the $1.2 million judgment it "could break the financial back of the NAACP."

Jackson stood on the sidewalk in front of city hall Thursday, soliciting contributions in an upturned cowboy hat. Both blacks and whites dropped in checks, coins and bills. The local NAACP said it hopes to raise $30,000 by Monday.

Other black mayors and city officials were helping.

Sen. John Tower Facing Divorce

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Joza Lou Tower has filed suit for divorce from her husband of 24 years, Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., citing irreconcilable differences. A spokesman for Tower said the divorce petition was filed by "mutual consent."

The petition filed Friday said the couple, who have three grown daughters, stopped living together as husband and wife last Sunday.

Tower, who will be 51 next week, first entered the U.S. Senate in 1961. He was chairman of President Ford's primary election campaign in Texas earlier this year.

Jury Acquits Man In Medical Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Franklin County Municipal Court jury Friday acquitted a man of practicing medicine without a license, then several members of the jury told the defendant they want to take lessons from him.

Fred Wu, who operates Dr. Wu's Kung Fu—Chinese—Karate & Tai Chi Chuan Institute in suburban Hilliard was accused of having diagnosed and treated an investigator for the state medical board who had told him he suffered from arthritis.

Wu's attorney, Raymond Twohig, maintained throughout the trial that his client, who has a doctorate in agricultural biochemistry, is a teacher of Chinese arts, and that he was showing investigator Jerry C. McDaniel a technique, not treating him.

"I went over to shake hands with them (the members of the jury)," Wu said. "They all asked me, 'We'd like to take lessons from you.'"

Fish Kill Worrisome

TROY, Ohio (AP) — State officials are concerned about a pesticide spill in the Painters Creek area of Miami County which already is believed to have killed fish and which may endanger cattle watered there.

Alan Franks, spokesman for the Ohio Environmental Agency, said Sunday night that about 50 gallons of the pesticide Basanite-5 were spilled along a road and washed into Painters Creek by rain.

He described the pesticide as being "fairly toxic" and said it already is believed to have killed some fish. The EPA has notified the department of natural resources of the fish situation, Franks said.

He said a charcoal dam was being constructed downstream from the spill area and that bleach, which breaks down the components of Basanite-5, is being added to the water.

He said Basanite-5 is used get rid of potato plant foliage.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Showers and some thundershowers were expected to continue across Ohio today, particularly in the central and southern counties. Northern Ohio, which received the brunt of the overnight rain, was expected to see some respite today.

In the last 24 hours, southern counties remained dry while the Akron-Canton area was soaked by 1.10 inches of rain.

A cold front running from the northeast to southwest corners of the state was responsible for the widespread rain.

Highs today were expected to be in the 60s to the low 70s. Showers will continue tonight in the southeast with a chance of showers in all sections but the northwest and lows in the mid 40s to the low 50s.

Tuesday will be mostly cloudy with a chance of showers southeast, becoming partly sunny elsewhere by late afternoon with highs in the upper 50s to the mid 60s.

House Destroyed By Fire Saturday

An unfinished home, valued in excess of $40,000, was destroyed by fire Saturday night, according to reports at the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

William Harmon was owner of the home, located on the Columbus-Darbyville Road. Deputies are checking reports that the house had recently been sold. However, the paperwork was destroyed with the dwelling.

Eight pieces of fire-fighting apparatus from the Scioto Twp. and Harrison Twp. Fire Department battled the 7:55 p.m. Saturday blaze.

Robert V. Miller To Receive Masonic Honor

Robert Von Miller of Route 1, Ashville has been awarded the designation of Knight of the York Cross of Honour, it was reported today.

This honorary degree, highest in the York Rite of Freemasonry, is conferred only on those who have held the highest office in each of the four bodies of the rite. Miller becomes one of the comparative handful of about 400 of the over four and a quarter million Freemasons in North America, the Philippines and Australia to qualify this year.

Miller served as Master of Circleville's Pickaway Lodge of Masons in 1975; High Priest of Circleville Chapter, Royal Arch Masons in 1967; Master of Tyrian Council, Royal and Select Masters in 1964; Commander of Scioto Commandery, Knight Templar, in 1960. He was elected to membership in Ohio Priory and his election confirmed by Convent General of the Order of September 22. A certificate of membership has been mailed to him. There are sixty-eight Priorities of the Order with a present membership of 10,000.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Suppose that little Willie, who lives down the street, heaves a brick through your picture window. Unless he is a habitual troublemaker, chances are you cannot collect damages from his parents.

But what about suing Willie himself? Even if he has no money of his own, he might well be covered by the family's liability insurance.

Most courts say a child is indeed liable for wilful destruction of property. For example:

A six-year-old boy deliberately stomped on a neighbor's fresh bed of geraniums. The neighbor filed suit against the boy and won a judgment. The court pointed out that the main purpose of a damage suit is not to punish the wrongdoer but to reimburse the victim for his loss.

A child may also be liable for inflicting personal injury. Another six-year-old boy, seeing a four-year-old girl approaching, announced to his playmates:

"I'll take care of Lucy."
He thereupon gave her a hard shove that sent her spinning to the ground. Result: injury to Lucy's arm and, in due course, a damage verdict against the boy.

On the other hand the child is usually not liable if his action, even though intentional, even though harmful, lacks mischievous motive.

One affectionate four-year-old grabbed a woman visitor just below the knees, causing her to fall over and get hurt.

But when she sued him for damages, the court found no wrongful intention in the child's mind. Rejecting the woman's claim, the court said the hug was not an act of mischief but an act of love.

Dole Plans Tour Of Southwest Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Robert Dole, the Republican vice presidential nominee, returns to Ohio this week to try to shore up what he believes has been slippage of GOP support in farm areas.

The Kansas senator plans to take part in a motorcade Tuesday from Parkersburg, W. Va. to Marietta, and make a speech that evening at a political rally in Newark.

Dole will stay overnight in Springfield Tuesday and make an appearance there before leaving on another motorcade Wednesday through rural areas of southwest Ohio.

Keith McNamara, chairman of the President Ford Committee in Ohio, said during the weekend that details of the senator's itinerary still were being worked out.

Dole, who spoke last Tuesday at the Republican State Convention in Columbus, hinted then he would be back to campaign in rural areas, hoping to convince Ohio's traditionally Republican farmers that a new Ford Administration would be in their best interests.

"We're going to work for the farmer," said Dole of himself and the president who has yet to campaign here for the Nov. 2 election.

Sunday, at Newport Beach, Calif., the vice presidential nominee confirmed reports of slipping farm support. "There are indications that in farm areas, we still have a great deal to do," he said.

Dole didn't give specifics, but mentioned "fresh surveys" that call for more work in the midwest farm belt. Ohio and Illinois, which he will visit later this week, were named as two of 10 states Republican strategists believe Ford must carry to win the election.

Ohio's farmers loom as possible supporters of the Democratic Carter-Mondale ticket in part because Carter is a farmer, and otherwise because some of them are still mad at Ford for imposing his 1975 embargo on grain sales to the Soviet Union.

At the time, C. William Swank, executive head of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, said many farmers felt Ford caved in to George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO whose union interests at the time called for support of the embargo.

The embargo was lifted in time for most of the state's grain harvest to be salvaged, although millions of tons had to be stored on the ground because the unexpected embargo halted shipments of that year's bumper crop.

Swank said the thing that angered his members most was that President Ford and Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz earlier in the year assured farmers their crops would be sold, telling them to "produce all you can."

McNamara, asked this weekend if he felt Ohio's farmers still are angry about the embargo, said "some of them may be." But he added that he thinks most of them were able to vent their feelings in the Republican primary in which Ronald Reagan received 45 per cent of the vote "and now will support the president."

When the French and English began their struggle for the Ohio Valley in the middle of the 18th Century they found Ohio occupied by a number of tribes who were themselves immigrants into the region from the South, East and North.—AP

LEUKEMIA GIRL AND GOVERNOR — Governor James A. Rhodes is shown with Jennifer (Jenny) George, the 1976-77 Leukemia Society Girl, riding in a golf cart as they kicked off the annual Residential Drive for the Central Ohio Chapter of the Leukemia Society. Jenny is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonny R. George of 6448 Retton Road in Reynoldsburg. She has acute stem cell leukemia and is a Leukemia Society patient. Mrs. H. Richard P. Niehoff, President of the Central Ohio Chapter, announced the Leukemia Society's goal of $200,000. Over 19,000 volunteers will be donating their time to solicit funds to support the Society's programs of research, patient aid and public and professional education. All volunteers are urged to complete their areas as soon as possible. The drive continues throughout the month of September. John R. Adkins is the Pickaway County chairman.

Mine Safety Rules Sought By UMW

CINCINNATI (AP) — When United Mine Workers Secretary-Treasurer Harry Patrick told the union's convention delegates here of bringing his brother's lifeless body out of a mine, they listened with empathy.

Coal mining is the nation's most hazardous industrial occupation. Thousands of miners have been killed and maimed in mining mishaps and almost all of the 1,800 delegates who heard Patrick speak Saturday have themselves lost friends and relatives.

Because of this, safety is a topic that's never very far from the floor during a UMW convention. The miners were thrashing out safety proposals when they recessed for the weekend Saturday and they'll be back at it again today when their convention resumes.

Both Patrick and Robert Garrett, the chief administrator of the federal Mining Enforcement and Safety Administration (MESA), challenged the delegates to personally see to it that their mines become safe.

"Brothers," Patrick said, "the coal operators are never going to make the mines safe unless we make them do it."

The delegates agreed and went to work on the safety proposals they want included in their next work contract. Some of their suggestions are sure to touch off lengthy debate when the union negotiators sit down with the coal operators late next year.

Miss Wheelchair America Named

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 1977 Miss Wheelchair America is Beverly Marie Chapman, a secretarial assistant in Orlando, Fla.

Entered as Miss Florida, she topped a field of 32 contestants Saturday night in the fifth annual national pageant from the United States, Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic.

Runnersup were Mae Francis DeClue, Miss Georgia; Sheila Gilbert, Miss Alabama; Susan Stephenson, Miss Montana, and Crescencia Knudson, Miss Arizona.

Miss Chapman succeeds Dixie Lee Etheridge of Greenville, Miss.

The contest was started here in 1972 to focus attention on the attributes of disabled persons. Judging was based on personal accomplishment, personality and appearance.

Mild Winter, Woolly Bears Indicate

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Put away your long johns. The woolly bear caterpillar report is out and it's the "year of the blonde" for the furry little creatures, indicating a mild winter. Herbert Krone, 82, who claims the color of the woolly bear forecasts winter weather, says this year's crop is the lightest he's seen in more than a half century.

"This is the year of the blonde," Krone said Friday in a telephone interview from his home in Lancaster. "It's the first time I've ever seen real platinum blonde woolly bears. It must indicate we're in for a real mild winter."

Krone's annual woolly bear report isn't as widely known as Groundhog Day observations — another Pennsylvania weather barometer that originated in Punxsutawney — but he claims 97 per cent accuracy for it.

"Woolly bears are generally light at the front end, dark in the middle and light at the rear end," Krone said. "That means we're in for an average winter, warm in the fall, turning cold by winter, then going back warm again in the spring."

The woolly bears appear in late September or early October. This year's crop is all pale, meaning an extremely mild winter, Krone said, adding that almost all he had seen so far were female.

Grange News

SALT CREEK GRANGE

With Hoyt Timmons presiding, Saltcreek Valley Grange met Sept. 21 at Wolfe Hall in Tarlton. Francis Fraunfelter announced chairmen and committee members for the Activity year beginning Oct. 1: Youth, Mark Wolfe; Public Relations, Leora Sayre; C.W.A., Rose Minor, Mary DeLong, Gladys Hedges, Esther Collins, and Alma McKenzie; Good Cheer, Donna Beougher and Shirley Wolfe; Annual Luncheon, Paul Dunkle, Wilma and Francis Fraunfelter, Ray and Virginia Mann.

Alma Miller read the memorial resolutions for the late Blanche Kerns. Wayne Cryder called attention to a communication from State Master James Ross concerning a special offer for "The New Encyclopedia Britannica Program."

A contribution was voted for Ohio Society for Prevention of Blindness. A greeting was sent Mary Ross, director of State Grange Youth Activities, a patient at Riverside Hospital.

The lecturer, Barbara McKenzie expressed appreciation for being sponsored at the recent Great Lakes Lecturer's Conference. Other members cooperating at this event were Paul Dunkle, Randy Wolfe, Keith Ashley, and Ron Chesser.

Paul Dunkle asked for suggestions for the October State Grange Conference at which he is the delegate for Pickaway County and chairman of the education committee. Mrs. Beougher suggested that members attend the Adelphi Methodist Church chicken-noodle dinner Oct. 9, the evening of the Hockman sale.

Assisted by Ron Chesser and Paul Dunkle, Miss McKenzie conducted a program, "Fun Games at Saltcreek Grange". This included truly fun contests and demonstrations.

Members having birthdays in June, July, August, Sept., were honored guests at the social hour featuring a refreshment smorgasboard.

Berry Selected Park Manager

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state Department of Natural Resources has announced the appointment of James M. Berry as manager of the Malabar Farm State Park near Mansfield.

Berry, 26, has served for three years as park naturalist at Hueston Woods State Park in Preble County.

Before his assignment to Hueston Woods, the Dayton native worked at Malabar Farm as a ranger and was a seasonal naturalist at Mohican State Park.

Family Wins Round In Cancer Struggle

MIAMI (AP) — "We survived another one," Jane Southerland said last February after learning her husband had undergone successful brain surgery for removal of a tumor.

It was good news for the family that had lost one son to cancer but saw their two other sons win their battles against the disease.

Now, Raymond Southerland says the disease which has brought his family grief and financial hardship may have given scientists vital information.

Southerland says scientists at the National Cancer Institute in Bethesda, Md., where he underwent surgery, have told him they believe they've found a link between his tumor and his sons' malignancies.

"They're calling the full complex of tumors 'embryonic,'" the Dade County police deputy said. "In other words, they think there is something in our genes that is causing us all the trouble."

What Southerland, 37, calls "all the trouble" began in 1942 when his brother, Jerry, died at age 2 from a malignant brain tumor. His mother suffered from breast cancer.

The Southerland's 4-year-old son, Jeffrey, died of lymphatic leukemia in 1969 after an 18-month battle against the disease. The day before his death, doctors diagnosed a rare form of cancer in the nerve linings of his brother, Michael, then 5. Michael underwent two operations, radiation treatment and physical therapy for paralysis in his left arm.

The Southerland's 15-year-old son Stephen was diagnosed in 1974 as having bone cancer in his left leg, and his leg was amputated. Later, he became good friends with Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's son, Ted, who had a similar operation. Neither Stephen nor Michael has had a recurrence of the disease.

"I hope this is all over for us," Southerland said. "The doctors said we could still contract it. But we haven't had any recurrences. Maybe it is over."

Highway Toll Reaches 14 On Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic accidents across Ohio claimed 14 lives during the weekend, including one crash on Saturday in Ashland County in which three persons were killed, the Ohio Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol keeps its count from 6 p.m. Friday through midnight Sunday. The dead:

SUNDAY

WAUSEON — Arnold Neintzer, 89, of near Swanton, in a two-car crash on a county road near his home.

DAYTON — Benjamin Russell Bailey, 76, New Lebanon, in a three-car crash on Ohio 35 in Montgomery County in which five others were hurt.

YOUNGSTOWN — Stephen C. Hacon, 19, Austintown, in a one-car accident in Youngstown.

TIFFIN — Patrick A. Reinhard, 21, Tiffin, in a one-car accident on a Seneca County road.

HAMILTON — William King, 29, Dayton, in a head-on collision on a Hamilton street.

COLUMBUS — Harry Scott, 39, Columbus, in a one-car accident on a city street.

SATURDAY

PIKETON — Roger L. Treadaway, 23, Xenia, in a two-car accident on U.S. 23 near Piketon.

YOUNGSTOWN — Eugene Dewerd, 44, Youngstown, in a two-car accident on U.S. 62 in Mahoning County.

TOLEDO — George Skaff, 51, Toledo, in a two-car accident on a Toledo city street.

ASHLAND — John E. Smith, 26, Norton; Larry Yeager, 20, Jamestown, N.Y.; David Smith, 13, of Doylestown and Joan Kratzer, 46, Sullivan, in a two-car accident on U.S. 224 in Ashland County.

FRIDAY NIGHT

WARREN — William D. Cook, 35, Niles, in a two-car accident west of Ohio 5 in Holland Township.

The Greeks were setting up city-states in 1002 B.C. Among them were Sparta, Athens, Thebes and Corinth.

A lottery was employed to raise funds in the formative years of Cincinnati University in 1807. The lottery was established by the university commissioners.—AP

Allen County Hits State Fair Change

LIMA, Ohio (AP)— Allen County fair people are up in arms over plans to change the dates of next year's Ohio State Fair, because it will infringe on the traditional date for their summer show.

The Ohio Exposition Commission plans to start next year's Ohio State Fair 10 days earlier and run it 13 days instead of 12 to offset the possibility of lower attendance because of earlier school starts.

Some fair officials thought the earlier beginning of the school year hurt attendance this summer, but the 1976 fair wound up with a record overall crowd.

Jim Lorz, executive secretary of the Allen County Fair Board, said, "We will be completely surrounded by the state fair." He foresees livestock exhibitors abandoning the Allen County Fair for the higher premiums at the state fair. Harness horses and midway rides and games also will be attracted to the bigger crowds in Columbus, he said.

Lorz and his board have sent a protest letter to Gov. James A. Rhodes, and said more than 1,000 letters had been sent to Allen County residents urging them to speak out against the change in the state fair date.

One county fair is on tap this week in Ohio. The Brown County Fair opens Wednesday at Georgetown, running through Sunday.

The two-day Ohio Swiss Festival starts Friday at Sugar Creek.

Two People Hurt Seriously When Cars Collide Saturday

ACCIDENT SCENE — Three people were hurt as a result of this two-car accident 4:35 p.m. Saturday on Route 159. Cars driven by Eugene Brumfield, 39, New Albany, and Gilbert L. Butterbaugh, 18, Route 1, Ashville, collided head-on, according to Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies, when Butterbaugh left the southbound lane to pass a car.

Three people were hurt, two seriously, in a head-on collision 4:35 p.m. Saturday on Route 159, one-tenth of a mile south of the Pickaway-Saltcreek Road.

Rickie Brumfield, 12, New Albany, is in "fair" condition in Children's Hospital, Columbus, where he is being treated for a fractured left leg, lacerations to his left shoulder and right knee, and multiple lacerations, contusions, and abrasions.

He was a passenger in a car driven by Eugene T. Brumfield, 39, New Albany. Brumfield was treated at Berger Hospital's emergency room for severe lacerations to his forehead, a laceration to his left leg, and chest injuries.

Driver of the other car, Gilbert L. Butterbaugh, 18, Route 1, Ashville, was admitted to Berger Hospital following surgery for internal injuries, multiple lacerations, and contusions and abrasions.

Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Jim Fite said Butterbaugh was driving south on Route 159 and in the process of passing another southbound vehicle when he collided head-on with Brumfield's northbound car.

Brumfield swerved to avoid a collision, but was knocked off the roadway.

Butterbaugh's car, a 1968 Chevrolet, was "torn apart" in impact, according to Deputy Fite. He was trapped in the wreckage for a short time.

Deputy Fite and Deputy Terry Frazier administered first aid to the victims before they were taken to Berger Hospital by the Kingston Emergency Medical Team.

Bill Butterbaugh, Route 4, was one of the first people at the scene, and helped remove Butterbaugh from the car.

The Kingston Fire Department washed gasoline from the roadway.

Two Orient girls were injured when their car was struck in the rear by another vehicle, which sped away and crashed about five miles later.

Farmer Age Average Shows Drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — Population experts at the Agriculture Department say they are not satisfied they have pinpointed the causes of Census Bureau report that the median age of those self-employed in agriculture dipped last year to 50.4 years old.

Economic Development Division demographer Calvin L. Beale says those between 16 and 35 years old have gained in numbers by 35 per cent since 1970, when half those in agriculture were older than 53.1 years old and half were younger.

In the five-year period, those over 60 saw their numbers shrink by 23 per cent to where they comprise 27 per cent of the group instead of a third.

In 1970, there were 2.27 persons in agriculture over age 60 for every one under 35; last year, there were 1.29.

Those statistics include farm veterinarians, crop dusters, cotton ginner and those in related jobs, as well as farmers, Beale said, but all have agriculture as their principal or only occupation. Considering only farm operators, the average age in 1910 was 43.5 years and had climbed by 1965 to 51.3 years.

"If there were two demographic articles of faith for those engaged in rural policy or research in the 1960s, they were the advancing age of farmers and the high rate of rural-to-urban migration," he said.

The reversal in the migration trend has been apparent for almost two years, he noted, and now the concerns that date from World War I over who would replace older farmers may be unnecessary.

Egg Output On Rise; Market Same

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Department economists who study the poultry and egg markets expect farmers to keep the production of eggs from their hens increasing slightly from now into 1977.

But USDA economists who focus on consumer concerns and spending patterns do not expect Americans to buy any more eggs this year than the 278 consumed per person last year.

The result is that production and consumption rates will run about even, assuming that the population increases this year.

Surveys for USDA's marketbasket of 66 U.S. farm-produced foods, however, show that supermarket prices for a dozen Grade A large eggs last month were 16.3 per cent higher than in August 1975. Over-all retail food prices for 1976 are averaging only 2.5 to 3 per cent higher than last year, the smallest growth rate in five years.

A recent report, published after the different sets of economists made their late-summer projections, showed the nation's hens producing 5.4 billion eggs in August, slightly below the month before and a break in the year's upward trend.

The number of hens was 2 per cent larger on Sept. 1 than on Aug. 1, at 272.3 million, but the rate of lay, key to the production gains this year, was down seven-tenths of 1 per cent.

However, the Crop Reporting Board said, the number of eggs in incubators was up 10 per cent from a year before and hatchings were up 9 per cent, so the higher production forecasts may still be on target.

Hocking Festival Slated Oct. 2-3

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The fourth annual Hocking Hills Arts and Crafts Festival is scheduled for Oct. 2-3 at Hocking Hills State Park.

More than 43 artisans are to participate in the event sponsored by the state Department of Natural Resources in cooperation with the Hocking Hills Artists and Craftsmen's Association.

Woodcraft, pottery making, chair caning, painting, metal working and sculpting are among the art forms to be displayed and offered for sale.

The show will be open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the picnic area near Old Man's cave.

Pollution Fines Sent To State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Department of Natural Resources says it has received $4,292 from two corporations and a village for damage to wildlife resulting from pollution.

The Durez Division of Hooker Chemical and Plastics Corp., Kenton, paid $2,803 for two fish kills in Hardin County in 1975; Ruminant Nitrogen Products Co., of Adrian, Mich., paid $1,783 for a fish kill in Auglaize County in 1974, and the Village of Columbus Grove paid $751 in damages for pollution to Plum Creek in Putnam County in 1973, the DNR said.

Firemen Battle Two Blazes

Circleville Firemen were called to two fires over the weekend.

The first came at approximately 4 p.m. Saturday afternoon, when a vacant garage was discovered burning at the rear of 120 Pinckney Street. The garage was almost totally destroyed. Firemen believe the blaze was started by children playing with matches.

The weekend's second fire came at 2:40 p.m. Sunday afternoon when firemen were dispatched to 523 Maize Court at the Nicholas Square apartments. A fire had started in the apartment occupied by Stephen Prickell.

Cause of the blaze was an overheated pan on the stove. The pan had caught fire and the flames spread through the kitchen, causing extensive damage.

No injuries were reported in either fire.

Harsha Reports

BY WILLIAM H. HARSHA
Representative To Congress
Sixth District Of Ohio

It took two years of hearings, study, and debate, but Congress has at last approved a tax revision bill.

The legislative compromise reached between the two houses is far from perfect, but it does bring needed relief in some important areas. For that reason, I voted for the conference report accompanying the 1976 Tax Reform Act.

Despite the fact that we in the House of Representatives were considering a 1,536-page bill covering 250 different issues and touching the lives of every American, the majority on the tax writing Ways and Means Committee made it possible for the bill to be amended on the House floor.

It was a matter of accepting the conference report or rejecting it, a matter of accepting much less than the full reform desired, or getting no tax relief at all.

One of the primary sections in the bill grants an increase in the estate tax exemption from the current $60,000 to $120,000 in 1977, and ultimately $175,000 in 1981. I had supported legislation to increase outright the exemption from $60,000 to $120,000.

Still, some relief is provided to middle income Americans who may inherit nothing more than a modest house or small farm. Inflation has increased over 200 per cent since the estate tax laws were enacted, but the dollar exemption of $60,000 has remained the same.

Consequently, the growth of inflation has pushed hundreds of thousands of taxpayers into brackets subject to estate taxes, even though real worth remains relatively stationary.

Those who have suffered in this squeeze the most are the owners of family farms and family businesses, many of whose heirs must sell their properties simply to pay the estate tax.

The exemption increase is certainly welcomed, although, unfortunately, along with it, the bill increases the capital gains tax on an inherited estate which is sold.

Basic tax cuts that were contained as temporary measures in the 1975 tax bill were maintained in this tax reform bill, such as personal tax credits, standard deductions, and earned income credit.

Improvements in the tax treatment of the elderly are significant in that the retirement income credits are increased in one provision, similar to legislation I introduced during this Congress for the same purpose. A significant increase for the elderly in the tax exclusion level of funds received from the sale of a house is also provided.

The act changes our tax laws to permit a housewife without an independent income to contribute jointly with her husband up to $1,750 yearly, tax-free, toward retirement programs.

The minimum tax and tax shelter provisions of the law have been tightened. The bill actually increases the minimum tax liability for the extremely wealthy while at the same time retaining most of the incentives for individuals to invest their money in private enterprise.

In addition to improvements for individuals, there are tax benefits to help small business; to aid in the employment of the handicapped; and through the extension of the investment tax credit, to aid in the continued recovery of American business.

Tax reform has been a long time coming, and the action taken by Congress is a step in the right direction, even if the effort has fallen far short of true tax reform.

Red Cross Orientation Scheduled

An orientation for Red Cross volunteers will be held at the Chapter House, 167 Watt Street on Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

This is the basic Red Cross training which qualifies volunteers to work in all areas of service. Additional training is given for the volunteer position each person chooses.

Volunteers are needed at Berger Hospital to work the floor in the evening after 7, in the Emergency Room Saturday and Sunday mornings and after 12 at night, in X-ray on Tuesday and Friday afternoon and at the reception desk Saturday and Sunday afternoon and weekday evenings 5-8 p.m.

Additional volunteers are needed to assist with mending at the VA Hospital once or twice a month. A chapter station wagon is used for transportation for all volunteer services at Chillicothe VA Hospital.

Volunteers, both men and women, are needed to drive the chapter cars on out-of-town trips taking patients to hospitals, clinics and to doctors.

Mrs. Walter Garner will conduct the orientation. Anyone with some free time and a desire to provide much needed and appreciated community service will be welcomed. For any further information please call the Red Cross, 474-5736.

New Catalog

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A catalog telling of the history and development of European master drawings from the 14th to the close of the 18th century has been published by the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

The 238-page book was written by Ebraia Feinblatt, the museum's senior curator of prints and drawings.

Safety matches, which light only on a prepared surface, were first made in Sweden in 1845.

Wave Of Upsets Marks Collegiate Football

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer
"This was the greatest football game a Missouri team ever has played," said Al Onofrio.
"Nuts!" said Woody Hayes.
Woody wasn't disputing Onofrio. It was just that the scoreboard said 22 points for Al's Missouri Tigers and 21 for Woody's Ohio State Buckeyes when sub quarterback Pete Woods tossed a two-yard touchdown pass to Leo Lewis with 12 seconds left and then ran across for the decisive twopoint conversion after a penalty gave Missouri a second chance.
The comeback of the second-ranked Buckeyes highlighted another wave of upsets for the second time in three weeks as four other members of The Associated Press Top Twenty also went down to defeat.
Houston continued to make the most of its initial season in the Southwest Conference race. The Cougars, 49-14 losers to Florida in a non-conference game a week ago, knocked off ninth-ranked Texas A&M 21-10 and took over undisputed possession of the top rung in the SWC.
Penn State, like Missouri, went for two points in the final period but a pass fell incomplete and the 11th-ranked Nittany Lions bowed to unheralded Iowa 7-6. Arkansas, ranked 12th, dropped a 9-3 battle of field goals to Tulsa while No. 14 Illinois followed last week's upset of Missouri with a 34-19 loss to Baylor.
Meanwhile, top-rated Michigan smashed Navy 70-14, third-ranked Pitt held off Temple 21-7, No. 4 Oklahoma downed Florida State 24-9, fifth-ranked UCLA drubbed Air Force 40-7, sixth-ranked Nebraska crushed Texas Christian 64-10, No. 7 Georgia turned back South Carolina 20-12 and eighth-ranked Maryland beat Syracuse 42-28. Kansas, No. 10, was idle.

Back in the Second Ten, No. 13 Alabama trounced Vanderbilt 42-14, No. 15 Louisiana State zapped Rice 31-0, No. 16 North Carolina outlasted Army 34-32, No. 17 Mississippi blanked Southern Mississippi 28-0, No. 18 Boston College trimmed Tulane 27-3, No. 19 Southern California trounced Purdue 31-13 and No. 20 Texas Tech nosed out New Mexico 20-16.
Missouri's Woods, filling in for the injured Steve Pisarkiewicz, fired a 31-yard scoring pass to Joe Stewart in the second quarter but Ohio State's Pete Johnson scored three times on two-yard bursts to give the Buckeyes a 21-7 halftime lead.
Curt Brown's four-yard run in the third period made it 21-14 and Brown raced 31 yards to the Ohio State nine to set up Missouri's final TD.
Woods then overthrew Lewis in the end zone but Ohio State was caught holding, giving Missouri another shot. This time, Woods ran it in.
"I was quite relieved when I was given a second chance for the extra points," he said. "I just saw daylight and got hit before I got to the goal. I was lucky enough to get it."
The trigger-tempered Hayes was subdued but showed up for post-game questioning. He exploded when newsmen kept harping on the critical penalty.
He met them Sunday, said howdy and did his thing all over again, throwing for two touchdowns and running for a third against the two-time Super Bowl champions.
The Steelers built a 20-9 third-period lead before the roof caved in. The first crack came on Grogan's 38-yard TD pass to Russ Francis. When the Pats got the ball back, they got the lead for good on his 42-yarder to Darryl Stingley. Then he drove New England 80 yards for another touchdown, scoring it himself by stiff-arming tackle Mean Joe Greene and sweeping in from the six.
It put New England on top 30-20. Terry Bradshaw's TD pass cut the lead to three points and Roy Gerela tried to cut it zero — but his try for a 48-yard field goal at the gun faded wide.

"You just want me to say something about that penalty," he snorted as he stalked from the room. "You just want me to make an alibi. Well, nuts! Nuts!"
Danny Davis was the triggerman in Houston's upset of Texas A&M, drilling first-half scoring passes of 32 and 18 yards to Eddie Foster and a 50-yarder to Robert Lavergne.
Iowa took the lead against Penn State on a two-yard firstperiod touchdown by freshman Tom Renn and Nick Quartaro's conversion and blanked the losers until only nine minutes remained.
Arkansas' Steve Little kicked a Southwest Conference record 61-yard field goal but Tulsa freshman Steve Cox offset that with boots of 39, 28 and 40 yards. Cleveland Franklin scored four times on short runs as Baylor stunned Illinois.
Rick Leach scored two touchdowns and threw for two more as Michigan rolled up its highest point total in 37 years in routing Navy.
Pitt spotted Temple an early touchdown, then came from behind on two field goals and short touchdown runs by Elliott Walker and Tony Dorsett. Scoring runs of 37 and 23 yards by Horace Ivory helped Oklahoma defeat Florida State.
UCLA's Wendell Tyler rushed for 156 yards against Air Force and upped his career total to a school record 2,519. Vince Ferragamo tied the Nebraska record by throwing four touchdown passes against TCU while Georgia rallied on two secondhalf touchdowns to down South Carolina.

Steve Atkins, a 225-pound sophomore, set a Maryland rushing mark of 215 yards against Syracuse. He scored on runs of one, 11 and 76 yards.
Jack O'Rear triggered Alabama's rout of Vanderbilt with a 52-yard gallop but injured an ankle on the play and turned quarterbacking duties over to subs Jeff Rutledge and Kevin Jones.
Terry Robiskie rushed for a school record 214 yards in leading LSU over Rice while Mike Voight ran for 168 yards and four touchdowns as North Carolina outlasted Army. The losers' Leamon Hall set three West Point records by completing 28 of 55 passes for 385 yards and a record-tying four touchdowns.
Ole Miss shut out Southern Mississippi but the Rebels defensive unit suffered a blow when end Gary Stuart when out for the season with a knee injury. Boston College workhorse Glen Capriola carried 35 times for 144 yards against Tulane in the New Orleans Superdome as President Ford watched most of the first half.
Ricky Bell gained 177 yards to lead Southern Cal over Purdue while Texas Tech used a 69-yard pass from Rodney Allison to Godfrey Turner to turn back stubborn New Mexico.
In the 67th edition of college football's oldest rivalry, Rutgers blanked Princeton 17-0 and extended the nation's longest winning streak to 10 games. The Scarlet Knights share the honor with Ball State, a 27-14 winner over Toledo.

Ball State Blasts Toledo, 27-14

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Maurice Harvey's third quarter pass interception and touchdown run was "the whole turning point" in Ball State's 27-14 Mid-American Conference football victory over Toledo, Cardinals Coach Dave McClain said.
"Without that the outcome of the game could have been different," McClain added.
The triumph Saturday night pulled Ball State even with Ohio University and Western Michigan with 2-0 marks at the top of the conference standings. It also put the league newcomer in a good position to claim the conference title, since it has an easy schedule and only three MAC games left.
Harvey returned the interception 53 yards to paydirt and gave the Cardinals a 14-0 lead. Later in the third period Earl Taylor scored on a five-yard scamper to all but sew up the victory.
"It was the longest game I've ever seen in my life," McClain said. "I've never seen us make so many mistakes. We did a good job defensively, but Toledo's defense caused us some great problems."

Michigan downed Marshall 22-7, Bowling Green was tripped up by San Diego State 27-15, Kent State was trounced by Iowa State 47-7, Western Michigan fell to Minnesota 21-10, Northern Illinois, and Eastern Michigan dropped a 23-10 decision to McNeese State, La.
In other major Ohio college football action Saturday, second-ranked Ohio State was stunned by Missouri 22-21 on a touchdown in the closing seconds and a two-point conversion, and Dayton beat Indiana State 20-14.
Missouri Quarterback Pete Woods, a junior making his first football start in place of injured Steve Pisarkiewicz, ran for the two points after heaving a touchdown pass to Leo Lewis.
The visitors' dramatic rally overshadowed a three-touchdown performance by Ohio State fullback Pete Johnson.
Dayton evened its record at 2-2 as sophomore halfback Sylvester Monroe rushed for 146 yards on 37 carries and Hartmut Strecker booted two field goals.
Hoosier-Buckeye Conference play saw Defiance edging Earlham 28-24 on a touchdown by Gene Mendoza with 14 seconds remaining to play; Wilmington trimming Manchester 10-9 on Dave Bishop's 22-yard field goal, and Findlay overcoming Bluffton 28-10 behind the two-touchdown performance of full-back Randy Farabee.
In Presidents Conference action, Carnegie-Mellon defeated Case Western 21-7 as Dick West ran for 134 yards and one touchdown, and Washington & Jefferson squeaked by John Carroll 10-7 on a fourth quarter field goal by Steve Cox.
Elsewhere, it was Akron 24, Youngstown State 3; Western Illinois 35, Central State 23; Capital 22, Denison 0; Georgetown, Ky. 34, Marietta 3; Kalamazoo, Mich. 33, Mount Union 32; Ohio Northern 30, Ohio Wesleyan 8; Wittenberg 21, Butler 18; Wooster 21, Kenyon 7; Hiram 55, Oberlin 0; Muskingum 31, Baldwin-Wallace 3; Otterbein 17, Adrian, Mich. 8, and Ashland 22, Heidelberg 6.

Patriots, Chargers Post Big NFL Wins

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer
The meek inherited the earth — huge chunks of it at a clip.
In Pittsburgh, Steve Grogan, the wonder boy of the National Football League, followed up his sensational performance of a week ago with an even greater one, against an even more menacing foe, to lead the baffling New England Patriots past the reeling Steelers 30-27.
In San Diego, young Dan Fouts, facing a St. Louis team which often seems to own the patent on explosiveness, unleashed a bunch of lightning bolts of his own as the oncelowly Chargers struck down the Cardinals 43-24.
In Sunday's other games, Dallas outlasted Baltimore 30-27, Oakland edged Houston 14-13, Buffalo beat Tampa Bay 14-9, Minnesota nipped Detroit 10-9, New Orleans downed Kansas City 27-17, Miami shut out the New York Jets 16-0, Cincinnati whipped Green Bay 28-7, Atlanta blanked Chicago 10-0, Denver clobbered Cleveland 44-13, San Francisco sank Seattle 37-21 and Los Angeles trimmed the New York Giants 24-10. Tonight it's Washington at Philadelphia.

Patriots 30, Steelers 27
When Jim Plunkett left New England for the homier confines of the San Francisco Bay Area, the job of quarterbacking the downtrodden Patriots fell to young Steve Grogan, who had shown flashes of excellence last year.
This year, he's shown almost nothing but excellence. After a downbeat start, a loss to Baltimore, Grogan beat Miami by throwing for three touchdowns and running for one.
Ahh, the fans said. Just wait until he meets the meanest defense of them all — Pittsburgh's.

He met them Sunday, said howdy and did his thing all over again, throwing for two touchdowns and running for a third against the two-time Super Bowl champions.
The Steelers built a 20-9 third-period lead before the roof caved in. The first crack came on Grogan's 38-yard TD pass to Russ Francis. When the Pats got the ball back, they got the lead for good on his 42-yarder to Darryl Stingley. Then he drove New England 80 yards for another touchdown, scoring it himself by stiff-arming tackle Mean Joe Greene and sweeping in from the six.
It put New England on top 30-20. Terry Bradshaw's TD pass cut the lead to three points and Roy Gerela tried to cut it zero — but his try for a 48-yard field goal at the gun faded wide.

Chargers 43, Cardinals 24
Fouts threw four touchdown passes — twice his entire 1975 output — against the Cardinals. Three of them came in the second period, when the game was put out of reach.
"We're 3-0 right now and it's been a long time since any Charger team started this way," said Fouts. The last time, in fact, was in 1968 when they finished at 9-5. They'd been going downhill ever since, including last year's horrendous 2-12 campaign.
St. Louis led 10-6 going into the second period. Ten seconds later, though, the Chargers were on top via Rickey Young's three-yard run. And 14 seconds after that, the rout was on. Jerry Latin fumbled the ensuing kickoff, Rick Middleton recovered and Fouts hit Charlie Joiner on a 30-yard TD pass. Three minutes later, Tom Graham recovered a fumble and Fouts found Dwight McDonald with a 44-yard TD bomb. And with 61 seconds to go in the half, Graham intercepted a pass to set up Fouts' 18-yard TD pass to McDonald.
Cowboys 30, Colts 27
Efren Herrera's 32-yard field goal with three seconds left to play was the winner, but the real winner was quarterback Roger Staubach, who teamed with Drew Pearson on 14-yard and 16-yard passes — and got a more-than-helpful pass-interference call against Baltimore to boot — to set up the winning kick.
Raiders 14, Oilers 13
Mike Rae, virtually an untested NFL rookie when he started in Ken Stabler's place for Oakland, threw touchdown passes of nine and 33 yards to Cliff Branch.
Bills 14, Bucs 9
Tampa Bay finally got on the scoreboard — but not across the goal line. Three Dave Green field goals averted what might have been the Buccaneers' third straight shutout. Two Joe Ferguson touchdown passes — 58 yards to Bob Chandler and 15 yards to Reuben Gant — were all Buffalo needed.
Vikings 10, Lions 9
Chuck Foreman ran five yards for a tie-breaking touchdown and a 10-3 lead, then Minnesota slammed the door. With first and goal at the Minnesota one, the Lions failed to score. A few minutes later they did on Greg Landry's TD pass, but a bobbled snap on the extra point let the one-point lead stand up.
Saints 27, Saints 17
Hank Stram returned to Kansas City as head man with New Orleans and celebrated with a victory. Tony Galbreath, who burst 74 yards for a touchdown in the first period, ran nine yards in the fourth for the TD that beat the Chiefs.
Dolphins 16, Jets 0
Bob Griese's four-yard touchdown pass to Jim Mandich and Garo Yepremian's three field goals boosted Miami past the Jets, who fumbled four times and had a Joe Namath pass picked off.
Bengals 28, Packers 7
Ken Riley intercepted a pass and ran it 53 yards for a touchdown, then Tom Casanova went 33 yards for a score with another theft to lead Cincinnati past the Packers.
Falcons 10, Bears 0
A Haskel Stanback touchdown run, three plays after a Steve Schubert fumble at the Chicago 17-yard line, was all the Falcons needed to beat the Bears.
Broncos 44, Browns 13
Rick Upchurch returned punts 73 and 47 yards for touchdowns in Denver's romp over the Browns.
49ers 37, Seahawks 21
San Francisco's Jim Plunkett riddled Seattle's secondary for three first-half touchdowns, two of them to Gene Washington.
Rams 24, Giants 10
Los Angeles rallied behind John Cappelletti's two touchdowns on a 10-yard run and a 32-yard pass from James Harris.

Hartinger Grabs Berth With Scots

A Circleville High School graduate is battling for a defensive position on The College of Wooster football team this fall.
Tim Hartinger, a 5-11, 170-pound linebacker, is keeping the Fighting Scot veterans on their toes after two weeks of drills.
He comes to Wooster with impressive credentials. A three-time letterman at Circleville, Hartinger's high school record includes awards such as Prep All-American, second team Central District, American Legion Best Lineman, Coaches Top Defensive Lineman, All-SCOC, and All-County.
"Tim has the size and speed to get the job done," Wooster head coach Don Hunsinger said of Hartinger, who is being tested at outside linebacker. "We're looking for him to contribute a great deal this season."
Hartinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hartinger of 1052 Lynwood Ave.

CHS Racket Squad Tops London, 5-0

Circleville's girls tennis team came up with another shutout as they blanked London, 5-0.
In the singles matches, Sue Radcliff defeated Heather Grant, 6-3, 6-4; Ann Titus stopped Jean Hamilton, 6-1, 6-4; Kelly Steele beat Eileen Arikawa, 6-3, 6-2.
The results of the doubles were: Laura Dowd-Denise Crawford defeated Carrie Carson-C.C. Davis, 6-1, 4-6, 6-2; Shannon Yunker-Rojanne Bowers topped Joanna Burgess-Beth Cligrow, 6-4, 6-2.
In exhibition matches, Theresa Isaac defeated Angel Wilson, 10-3; Deanna Crawford-Sue Radcliff beat Tina Sexton-Cindy Olsen, 8-1.
Circleville is now 3-3 and will host Grove City 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Royals, Oakland To Collide

By BOB GREENE
AP Sports Writer
Kansas City might be in the driver's seat, but the Oakland A's have a big say in which direction the Royals are heading.
The Royals lead Oakland by 4½ games in the American League West Division — the only division race not yet settled. And Kansas City opens a three-game series at Oakland tonight.
"We're in the driver's seat, but we've got to win some of them," said Kansas City's Hal McRae following the Royals' 3-1 loss to the Texas Rangers Sunday. "It's been that way since the All-Star break when we were 12 games up."
One Kansas City victory at Oakland would sew up at least a tie for the Royals, whose "magic number" is three — any combination of Kansas City victories or Oakland defeats adding up to three.
"We've got to start hitting," said Royals Manager Whitey Herzog. "If we don't hit we won't win it."
"I've never seen anything like this. They (the Royals) look afraid to hit the ball, scared they are going to win a game. I'll be honest. I don't see how we're ever going to win another game."

Texas starter Nelson Briles, 11-9, held the Royals to just three hits through the first eight innings. But John Mayberry led off the Kansas City ninth with a single, bringing on reliever Mike Bacsik. Al Cowens singled and Jamie Quirk walked to load the bases.
After Bob Stinson's ground out scored Mayberry, Craig Skok relieved and walked Jim Wofford to load the bases again. But Steve Hargan — the Rangers' fourth pitcher of the inning — came on to get Amos Otis to fly to right, ending the game.
Lenny Randle knocked in two of the Texas runs.
In the only other AL games played Sunday, Boston stopped Baltimore 8-3 and California defeated Minnesota 4-1.
Rain washed out New York at Detroit, Milwaukee at Cleveland and Oakland at Chicago.

A six-hitter by Reggie Cleveland was backed by rookie catcher Ernie Whit's two-run double as Boston defeated Baltimore. Cleveland, 9-9, was helped by three double plays as Boston won its 11th game in its last 13 outings. The Red Sox scored three runs in the fifth off rookie Dennis Martinez, 1-1, making his first major league start, then added five in the eighth as Cecil Cooper and Jim Rice knocked in two runs each.
Angels 4, Twins 1
Frank Tanana's eight-hitter was backed by solo homers by Dave Collins and Ron Jackson as California downed Minnesota. It was Tanana's third victory of the season over the Twins and snapped Minnesota's five-game winning streak. Tanana is now 18-10, with the Twins' lone run coming on Craig Kuskick's home run.

Pair Of High Series Feature Pin Action

The wood was burning Sunday night in the Mixed League at Circle D Lanes as two 700 series were rolled in the same league for the first time in the Lanes history.
Hitting the high series were: Pete Strawser, 279-234-218-731 and Don Hipp, 246-256-211-713.

The New York Yankees clinched the AL East Division title Saturday night when they beat Detroit and second-place Baltimore lost to Boston.
"Maybe players make too much money and the World Series doesn't mean anything to them," Herzog said. "We should have wrapped this up two weeks ago."

Dodgers Edge Reds, 2-1

LOS ANGELES (AP) — At the start of the month even Steve Garvey knew it would take an extraordinary effort for him to reach 200 hits for the third straight year.

But today, with six games remaining, he is within five of that plateau, something no Los Angeles—or Brooklyn—Dodger ever accomplished three years in a row.

"I knew it would take a good September," said Garvey who had two hits Sunday in the Dodgers' 2-1 victory over Cincinnati. "But I hadn't had a hot streak all year so I'm due."

Garvey started September needing 43 hits in the Dodgers' final 32 games for his third successive 200-hit season. During September he has batted .396 (38-for-96).

Garvey's first hit Sunday eventually led to the decisive run, enabling Doug Rau to post his 16th victory, a career high, as well as lower his earned run average .254, second only to New York's Tom Seaver who is at 2.47.

Charlie Hough preserved Rau's victory with his 17th save, five more than he managed in all of his five previous seasons with Los Angeles.

The Dodgers also defeated Cincinnati rookie righthander Pat Zachry for the first time in 1976. Zachry was 5-0 against the Dodgers and was seeking to become the first pitcher in Los Angeles history to beat the Dodgers six times in a season.

"We're only one third of the way there, but it's a big step," says Philadelphia Manager Danny Ozark. "I feel we've got the best club in baseball."

Ozark's club took the first step towards backing up that contention Sunday by clinching the National League's East Division title with a 4-1 triumph over Montreal in the first game of a doubleheader. After a between-games champagne party, the Phils came back to complete the sweep with a 2-1 victory in the second game, shortened to seven innings by rain.

The Phils will meet the defending champion Cincinnati Reds for the National League crown in the best-of-five playoffs. Should they survive that test, they should meet the American League representative in the World Series.

"We've got pitching on this club. We can hit. We've got some speed, experience and maturity," said Jim Lonborg, who pitched a four-hitter in the clinching victory to raise his record to 17-10. "You've got to have all those things in order to be champions."

"Today, we're champions." Elsewhere in the National League, the New York Mets edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1, the Atlanta Braves routed the San Diego Padres 10-4, the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-2, the Los Angeles Dodgers nipped the Cincinnati Reds 2-1 and the San Francisco Giants defeated the Houston Astros 5-1.

Greg Luzinski's three-run homer off Montreal starter Dan Warthen, 2-9, in the sixth inning was the decisive blow as Philadelphia mathematically eliminated Pittsburgh to win its first title since 1950, when the "Whiz Kids" took the National League pennant on the last day of the season. The Phils' only other pennant year was 1915.

The Expos got their only run with two out in the bottom of the sixth when Wayne Garrett walked and Andre Dawson doubled. The Phils made it 4-1 in the seventh when Gary Maddox drew a leadoff walk, stole second and scored on Lonborg's single.

The Phils erased an early 1-0 deficit in the nightcap on runscore singles by Jay Johnstone in the third inning and Tim Blackwell in the sixth.

Mets 2, Cubs 1
The Mets built a 2-0 lead over the first six innings as Jerry Koosman, 21-9, did not allow a hit. But the Cubs reached him for a run on four consecutive hits starting the seventh, sending Koosman to the showers.

Bob Apodaca came on and pitched out of a bases-loaded, none-out jam, retiring three consecutive pinch hitters without letting the ball get out of the infield. Larry Blietner bounced into a forceout, John Sommers popped out and Pete LaCock grounded out to end the threat.

Cards 5, Pirates 2
Lou Brock snapped a 1-1 tie with a two-run triple in the fifth inning, then Hector Chen his shoulder stiffened. Tom Walker and Al Hrabosky came on in relief to complete the seven-hitter.

Braves 10, Padres 4
The Braves snapped a 4-4 tie with six runs in the eighth inning, two-run doubles by Darrell Chaney and Willie Montanez highlighting the rally. Chaney doubled to break the tie and scored on Jerry Royster's single, then Montanez doubled to make it 9-4 before Tom Paciorek drew a bases-loaded walk from Jerry Johnson for the final run.

Giants 5, Astros 1
Gary Thomasson had four hits and scored twice for the Giants, who snapped a 1-1 tie with two runs in the sixth on Thomasson's single, a sacrifice, a run-scoring single by Chris Speier and Dave Rader's RBI double.

Cleveland Barons Defeat Detroit, 6-4

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Cleveland Barons' Coach Jack Evans is a prophet.

After his teams' dismal showing against the Detroit Red Wings's penalty killers at the Coliseum last Wednesday, Evans promised the power play would be a top priority in practice, and it surely must have been as the Barons netted four power play goals Sunday night to defeat Detroit 6-4.

In picking up their second consecutive National Hockey League exhibition victory, the Barons exploded for the four strong-handed goals in the first two periods to jump to a lead they never relinquished.

A piece of the energy puzzle.

The natural gas shortage is costing more than just higher gas bills.

First of all, let's not kid ourselves that the natural gas shortage isn't for real. It is very real.

And yes, we all know that gas bills are going up. But the gas shortage has a price that doesn't show up on our gas bills. It's the cost of curtailment — rationing — of natural gas.

In 1975, U.S. industry couldn't get all the gas it needed. Companies that could afford to, switched to alternate fuels — at a cost of nearly three billion dollars more than their gas bill would have been! And who pays for that extra cost? All of us do. In the cost of the products those firms make.

And when companies cut back or shut down because they can't afford the cost of going to alternate fuels, there's an even higher price to pay. Lost jobs.

Higher product prices and higher unemployment. They don't show up on the gas bill.

But they're a real cost of the gas shortage.

Patty Hearst To Testify

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Patricia Hearst — kidnap victim, fugitive, and convicted bank robber — will assume a new role today as a grand jury witness testifying against her former Sym-bionese Liberation Army companions.

Miss Hearst's lawyer, F. Lee Bailey, says she will testify against self-avowed SLA members William and Emily Harris before an Alameda County Grand Jury investigating her Feb. 4, 1974 kidnapping.

The 22-year-old publishing heiress was sentenced Friday to seven years in prison on a bank robbery conviction.

Miss Hearst's lawyers said in their appeal "imprisonment of the defendant would result in a substantial loss of effectiveness of the defendant in providing testimony in ancillary criminal proceedings."

During her bank robbery trial earlier this year, she accused the Harrises of her abduction and denied that she willingly joined them during a 19-month journey through the terrorist underground.

The Harrises pleaded innocent after they were arraigned in Berkeley last Thursday on a 10-count complaint charging them with the kidnapping.

The state is seeking a formal indictment from the grand jury.

Carter Aids Hartke Race

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Democratic presidential candidate Jimmy Carter plans to appear at fundraiser here tonight for Vance Hartke. But the senior Indiana senator finds himself short of more than money as his bid for an unprecedented fourth term enters its final five weeks.

A poll taken by Market Opinion Research and released over the weekend shows former Indianapolis Mayor Richard G. Lugar leading Hartke 53-34 with 13 per cent undecided. The survey was released by Mitch Daniels Jr., Lugar's campaign manager.

The telephone poll of 800 persons done Sept. 16 and Sept. 17 for the Indiana GOP State Committee shows Lugar has widened his lead from 12 points in a poll taken in July.

Meanwhile, a financial crunch has forced Hartke and Democratic gubernatorial candidate Larry A. Conrad to temporarily abandon their television advertising plans. A squabble with an advertising agency also has forced Conrad to delay his radio spots for a week.

On July 9, 1962, the United States set off a two-megaton hydrogen explosion 200 miles above the Pacific Ocean over Johnston Island.

Pope Paul VI Becomes 79

ROME (AP) — Pope Paul VI marked his 79th birthday Sunday with no special public ceremony beyond his weekly noontime blessing in St. Peter's Square.

"If it were the way he likes it, no one would even bother to write a telegram of good wishes," said Archbishop Jacques Martin, French prelate in charge of papal ceremonies. "To him it is just another day."

Addressing 15,000 persons gathered in the square, the Pope thanked those who had sent birthday greetings and noted that he had reached "the evening of our earthly day."

"We pray, and we ask you to pray with us, for every human life, even that of the womb," he said, referring to abortion, again a pressing issue in the Italian parliament. A leftist bloc there is attempting to liberalize Italy's strict antiabortion law.

The Pope, who is in the 13th year of his reign, suffers from arthritis, a painful disease of the joints that makes walking difficult. Vatican observers say it takes him several hours each morning to limber up enough to begin his work. But he maintains a heavy schedule of audiences, and Vatican doctors say he suffers from no other diseases.

FALL CAMPOUT — Big and little Braves of the Y Indian Guides enjoyed a weekend Fall Campout at Camp Alfred Willson. Seventy-three fathers and sons of the Pickaway Plains Longhouse attended the weekend outing. In addition to canoeing, sailing, fishing, and hiking, the boys and their dads learned gun safety and proper firing methods as taught by Howard Judd and his son. In the picture, are Dennis Johnson and Dennis Wiley with their sons firing BB guns. Indian Guides is a program for boys 6 to 9 and their fathers who enjoy "doing things together."

3 Guerrillas Hanged After Damascus Raid

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Syrian government hanged three pro-Palestinian guerrillas at dawn today in swift retribution for a bloody raid on a Damascus hotel just 24 hours earlier.

A fourth guerrilla and four hostages were killed and 34 hostages were wounded in a seven-hour battle for the Semiramis Hotel in the most daring Palestinian attack yet in Syria.

The three surviving terrorists were hanged in a public square facing the luxury hotel. Their bodies, clad only in white tunics, were left dangling in nooses for six hours as thousands of Syrians pressed around the gallows and climbed to balconies and rooftops to see the victims.

The guerrillas called themselves the "Black June" group and apparently were protesting Syria's military intervention that began last June in the Lebanese civil war.

Before they were executed, the three went on Syrian state television and said they belonged to Al Fatah, the biggest Palestinian guerrilla group. They also said they had been trained in Iraq, which has supported radical Arab organizations and has denounced the Syrian role in Lebanon.

But in Beirut, a spokesman for the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), the Palestinian umbrella group headed by Yasser Arafat, denied that any PLO members were responsible. Arafat also heads Al Fatah, which is considered to be less radical than some Palestinian guerrilla units.

A Syrian government statement said the four hostages who died Sunday were killed by the terrorists. Three of the slain hostages were women, and witnesses said all were Arabs. Three Americans were reported in the hotel at the time and one, National Broadcasting Corp. assistant producer Robert Castenbach, was taken hostage but was unharmed, the U.S. Embassy said.

According to an account pieced together from witnesses and security officers, the four-member team pulled up to the hotel at about 5 a.m. Sunday in a dark blue car with Lebanese license plates. They asked for a room, were told none was available, left and returned with submachine guns and grenades.

Security officers said the commandos moved from floor to floor of the five-story hotel rousing guests from their sleep and taking them captive. Someone called police and the hotel was immediately surrounded, witnesses said.

Security forces cut off communications to the hotel and the guerrillas, holding the top floor, opened fire and hurled grenades down on the Syrians.

Military police and plainclothes intelligence agents returned the fire and besieged the building for about four hours until Syrian Premier Gen. Abdul Rahman Khleifawi and Defense Minister Mustafa Tias, who were at the scene, ordered the assault.

Some troops dashed into the lobby and worked their way upstairs while others clambered up fire-truck ladders and entered through upper-floor windows, firing automatic weapons and tear-gas grenades. After a furious three-hour gun battle, they subdued the terrorists.

It was not clear when the hostages were killed.

E-4 Kroger helps Mini-Mize your food costs! Prove it to yourself . . .

MAKE THE MINI-MIZER TEST!

- 1 BUY THIS WEEK'S GROCERIES AT KROGER
And while you're at our store, pick up one of our handy Mini-Mizer pocket adders for only 77¢.
- 2 CHECK AT ANY OTHER FOOD STORE YOU LIKE.
Use your Mini-Mizer to add up that store's total for the same items you just bought at Kroger.
- 3 COMPARE THE TOTALS.
We believe Kroger's total will be lower. But if you have any doubts, invest 77¢ and an hour of your time in making the test. See how much you can save, and settle any doubts for sure.

OPEN DATED FOR FRESHNESS

At Kroger, you'll find freshness dates on some 1900 food products. Such as milk or eggs or bread. Or packaged fresh meats and fresh fruits and vegetables. And even many other items other grocers don't open - date . . . like jelly, snack crackers or peanut butter.

What does this freshness date mean to you — the consumer? The easy-to-read month and day (unlike old-fashioned code dating) tells us — and you — the last day a product may be sold in our store. That's so we're both sure that the product will be fresh when you buy it and take it home . . . and fresh in your home for an average usage period (or longer).

At Kroger, we believe that consumers have the right to know more about the foods they buy. That's why we voluntarily began open-dating more foods than just about anybody else in the country. This is one more Kroger service designed to help you — the consumer.

We hear you and we're trying to help!

RAIN CHECK

WE HAVE WHAT WE
ADVERTISE, if at all possible. If, due to conditions beyond our control we run out of an advertised special we substitute a comparable brand at a similar savings or give you a rain check for the advertised special at the special price anytime within 30 days. WE GUARANTEE WHAT WE SELL. If you are ever dissatisfied with a Kroger purchase, we will replace your item or refund your money.
